Fund Drive Here Reaches 20 Per Cent

The Pickaway County Community Fund has reached 20 per cent of its goal, campaign officials announced today.

The goal for this year has been set at $32,445. The 20 per cent accumulation represents the first turn in of contribution reports at Fund headquarters in the American Hotel.

Contributions of 100 per cent by employees of three more local firms were reported today. They are Hummel & Plum Insurance, Bingham Drugs and the Fitzpatrick Printery.

The Fund's residential drive commenced here yesterday and will continue through the week. The business, industry and special groups phase was conducted last week.

Campaign officials said contributions are coming in at a steady pace from last week's effort. Heavy residential returns also are expected during the remainder of the week.

U.S. Prestige Is Recouped By Kennedy

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy was credited today by Sen. Hubert Humphrey, D-Minn., with having recouped in his address to the United Nations some U.S. prestige losses on Cuba and Laos.

Humphrey, the assistant Democratic leader who had worked closely with White House experts on the disarmament program the President laid down Monday, called the speech "the most remarkable and moving message of a political leader in the history of our country."

Humphrey said it went a long way toward erasing the prestige-losing stigma of the Cuban invasion fiasco and the failure to follow strong words with action in Laos.

To Sen. Alexander Wiley of Wisconsin, top Republican on the Foreign Relations Committee, it was "a great speech."

"The President called a spade a spade," Wiley said. "He was equal to the occasion."

In Gettysburg, Pa., former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, who recently has been critical of some of Kennedy's foreign policy actions said he was impressed very deeply that "the President said there is no additional security in merely pursuing a spiral of arms racing."

"He saw clearly that there could be a weakening. We saw here a definite desire to protect our country."

Berlin Agreement Is Seen Forming

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The rough outline of a possible East West agreement to end the Berlin crisis is beginning to appear in official statements including President Kennedy's speech to the United Nations.

This development indicated today, as some Western diplomats are saying privately, that sooner or later the Soviet Union and the Allied powers will agree on a compromise formula for opening negotiations to see whether a deal is possible.

What is highly uncertain is whether the formula can be worked out in Western diplomatic talks now under way with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko. The talks could produce accord in the next few days if Premier Khrushchev is ready to

Cost of Living Shows Decline

Fresh Food Supply Helps Trim Index

WASHINGTON (AP)—The cost of living dipped one-tenth of one per cent in August, the Labor Department announced today, mainly because of plentiful fresh foods at lower cost.

The department said consumer prices have risen one-half of one per cent in the first eight months of this year, "less than during any comparable period since 1955."

This stability was achieved in spite of July's jump of nearly one-half of one per cent which carried the index to a record of 128.1 per cent of the 1947-49 average, used as a base. The downward movement last month brought the level to 128 per cent.

That meant that the typical assortment of goods and services making up the living costs of the average city family cost 28 per cent more in August than in the period immediately after World War II.

Ewan Clague, commissioner of the Bureau of Labor Statistics, said the net advance for this year stemmed mainly from steady increases in the cost of used cars and the price of various services including rent, medical care, entertainment costs and public transportation.

Clague predicted the index will show a rise for September, for two reasons—an increase in used car prices is expected before the arrival of new models on the market, and the introduction of fall clothing lines will boost the apparel index following the late season summer clearance sales.

October's index normally would rise, Clague said, because of new car models selling at or near their list prices. November and December may bring a downward movement as meat prices fall.

Despite the August living costs decline, about 120,000 workers in aircraft and missile plants and small metal-working firms will get cost-of-living pay boosts under wage contracts tied to quarterly changes in the consumer price index. The quarterly index was up.

Some 100,000 employees of North American, Lockheed and Martin aircraft companies will get a cent hourly increase. About 20,000 workers of Republic Aircraft will receive two cents.

U.S. Military Chiefs Agree In OKing Use of A-Weapons

WASHINGTON (AP)—Pentagon sources said today the Joint Chiefs of Staff are united in a belief that nuclear weapons should be used if such a step becomes necessary in any military clash with the Soviet Union over Berlin.

These sources said the uniformed chiefs of the Army, Navy and Air Force long have been agreed with Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara on this.

The White House, unlike the Kremlin has not been rattling nuclear weapons during the Berlin crisis. Premier Khrushchev set off outcries of "nuclear blackmail" and "terror tactics" when he talked recently of having the ability to develop a superbomb and bragged that he had the missile power to deliver it to any point on the globe.

But in commenting on the Berlin crisis during his United Nations address Monday, President Kennedy declared every nation should know "the United States has both the will and the weapons to join free men in standing up ease the tensions over Berlin a bit. If he is not, the current efforts of Secretary of State Dean Rusk and British Foreign Secretary Lord Home will end in failure.

Should these preliminary discussions collapse, however, the prospect is that some new effort to arrange negotiations will be undertaken later in the fall. Western leaders seem privately convinced of this because the alternative to a Berlin settlement may well be a nuclear war.

Kennedy told the United Nations Monday the Western powers are determined to defend West Berlin "by whatever means are forced upon them." But he expressed confidence that "firmness and reason" can lead to a peaceful solution.

The President stopped short of saying what kind of solution might be acceptable to the United States and its allies.

Kennedy said the United States recognized that Germany could be kept divided by troops and tanks. His guarded statement implied acceptance indefinitely of the existing division of Germany. Such acceptance could lead to Western accommodation to Communist authority in East Germany.

Khrushchev long has demanded that the Western powers recognize the East German Communist regime. The implications of what Kennedy said stop far short of full recognition, but the foreign ministers of the United States, Britain, France and West Germany have talked over privately the possibility of accepting the fact of Red rule in East Germany.

Kennedy said he believed an agreement could be worked out that would protect "the freedom of West Berlin and Allied presence and access."

This comes close to the crux of the matter because Khrushchev clearly wants Allied troops withdrawn. But he also has talked a great deal about guaranteeing West Berlin a "free city" and also guaranteeing access. The gap between his position and Kennedy's could be a subject of negotiation, diplomats say, though he would have to accept the presence of Western troops.

Youth Struck By Vehicle

A five-year-old girl was taken to Berger Hospital at about 8:20 a. m. today after being struck by a truck at the intersection of Washington and Logan Sts.

Jackie Lynne Pence, Lowery Lane, was rushed to the hospital by the Circleville Fire Department Emergency Squad. She was treated and later released for multiple abrasions of the left leg.

The truck was driven by Wiley Williams, 53, Route 2, Chillicothe. Williams told City Patrolman William Brungs he was headed south on Washington St. As he attempted to make a left turn onto Logan St. he said a passerby yelled for him to stop. When he looked back a woman had the child in her arms, he added.

Cause of the incident was not determined by local police. However, Williams was cited into Circleville Municipal Court for not having an operator's license.

The driver was fined $50 and costs. The court suspended $15 of the fine.

Boy Back in School After Lightning Jolt

LEBANON, Ohio (AP)—Larry Baker, 13, was to go back to school today with only sore arms as a reminder of his brush with a lightning bolt.

The stroke knocked him unconscious Sunday outside a friend's home in nearby Franklin, and neighbors who went to his aid contended they could find no heart beat in the boy.

The youngster revived in an ambulance enroute to Middletown Hospital and was released after examination which showed no injury beyond shock.

They recalled that Gen. Lyman L. Minnitzer, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, made his position quite clear in mid-August at a briefing for visiting editors. Kennedy was present the sources said, when Minnitzer spoke.

November Vote To Decide Fate Of Two Levies

City, Teays Valley Schools Will Seek Operating Revenue

Voters in the city and one county local school district will decide the fate of two tax levies designed to finance school operations when they go to the polls Nov. 7.

On the Circleville ballot will be a request for renewal of a 3.4 mill levy combined with an additional .6 mills expected to provide an extra $20,000 annually for the next 10 years. Teays Valley Local School District seeks a renewal of a 6.0 mill levy for the next five years.

City Superintendent of Schools George A. Hartman has explained the city school's proposal is actually an attempt to regain millage lost in a re-evaluation of property since the original levy was approved five years ago.

At that time the tax levy was voted as a full 4.0 mills for each one hundred dollars of property valuation within the city. When property is re-evaluated, however, state law stipulates existing millage must be lowered to provide the same actual amount of income.

THUS THE city school millage was decreased to 3.4 from the original 4.0. The proposal to be placed before voters this year would, if approved, retain the 3.4 mills tax for an indefinite period of time in accordance with state law.

It would also enact the additional .6 mills for five years, returning city district millage to its previous level of 4.0.

Hartman pointed out when additional classroom space is opened in the fall of 1962, the city school system will need "at least seven more teachers." He added the additional $20,000 provided by the levy would fall to cover the increased cost of operation, meaning economy measures will be necessary in other phases of the school budget.

"The schools are on thin financial ice now. If the levy fails our operation would be paralyzed," Hartman stated.

The Teays Valley request is for a renewal of a six mill levy for another five years. The tax provides 60 cents in revenue for each $100 of property valuation in the district. A simple majority is necessary for passage of both measures.

Mother Sentenced In Death of Infant

BOWLING GREEN, Ohio (AP)—A divorcee who has four other children today was sentenced to 1-20 years in Marysville Reformatory for first-degree manslaughter in the death of a baby boy she abandoned west of the city.

She is Mrs. Mary Ellen Shoemaker, 34, of Bowling Green, who was permitted in common pleas court to plead guilty to the reduced charge after originally being charged with second-degree murder.

Mrs. Shoemaker testified that she didn't mean to kill the several-days-old child, saying she thought he was dead when she left him. The coroner's report said the infant was alive when abandoned. It was found dead Aug. 1.

Storm Lashes Parts of Ohio

Vicious Winds, Hail Are Recorded Monday

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The first vicious storm of autumn lashed Ohio Monday. Power and phone service was disrupted. Falling trees damaged homes and blocked highways. Walnut - sized hail pounded out windows. And one man was killed by lightning.

The screen of a drive-in theater east of Portsmouth was bowled over by heavy winds. A Portsmouth radio station was knocked off the air for more than an hour because of a power failure.

A light plane made an emergency landing at the old Cambridge Airport after its pilot sighted menacing clouds. The craft, however, was not tied down and the wind flipped it over.

Ronald M. Park 31, of Rt. 5, Chillicothe, was hunting squirrels on a farm five miles north of there when a rainstorm broke out. He took shelter under a tree which was hit by a lightning bolt, killing him.

The storm was freakish in its attacks. It tore to pieces a 40-by-60-foot machine shed east of McConellsville, but the machinery and a crib of corn inside were left intact.

Power failures were reported over a wide area. In the small Morgan County communities of Stockport and Chesterhill, telephone operators used storage batteries to keep the phones working while electricity was off.

Other power failures darkened McConellsville, Cambridge and St. Clairsville.

Many trees were uprooted. They fell across cars, homes and highways but no injuries were reported.

In McConellsville, the Morgan County seat, walnut - sized hail lasted two to three minutes, smashing windows open to the driving wind.

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—A burglary suspect arrested by Dayton police was accused of breaking into a suburban Kettering store about two weeks ago.

He told them that at the time of the crime he was buried. He explained he had been buried in a coffin for 2½ days at an Indiana fairground as part of a stunt.

U.N. Awaits Red Reply to Kennedy

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—U.N. delegates saw little hope today that the Soviet Union will soften its position in replying to President Kennedy's call for new negotiations on disarmament and the Berlin crisis.

Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko is expected to hold fast to the Kremlin's over-all stand on these and other international issues when he makes his policy statement before the 99-nation General Assembly.

Crippled Girl Steals Show From Stars

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—A 7-year-old St. Louis, Mo. girl, crippled with muscular dystrophy, was the star and guest of honor Monday night at one of the nicest parties ever held in Hollywood.

Jerry Lewis was host to more than 300 TV and movie names at the Coconut Grove affair.

Lewis is national chairman of the muscular dystrophy drive. Guest of honor was Lola Lucas, a third-grader in the Missouri city, who will be poster girl for the Muscular Dystrophy Association drive for funds in November.

The cute youngster sitting in a wheel chair at ringside, was entertained by Lewis, Johnny Mathis, Connie Stevens, the Ink Spots, Donald O'Connor, Jaye P. Morgan, the Wier Brothers Hoagy Carmichael, Art Linkletter and Vivien Della Chiesa.

Lola, undaunted by the star competition, easily stole the show. Linkletter, in an impromptu interview, asked her how her parents didn't hear the pitter-patter of little feet. They just heard a thud, thud.

"When I was 9 months old," the girl answered, "my Mama and Papa didn't hear the pitter-patter of little feet. They just heard a thud, thud."

New York Ships Relievers 'Home'

NEW YORK (AP)—City and state officials are speeding the return to other states and Puerto Rico of families they say come to New York and go on relief but make no attempt to find work.

Peter Kasius, deputy state welfare commissioner, disclosed Monday that 142 welfare applicants returned — at New York's taxpayers' expense — to their home states and Puerto Rico in the past two months.

Of these, Kasius said, 43 returned to Puerto Rico and 52 to Southern states.

Kasius' disclosure followed charges last week by officials in New York that some states were laying out money for welfare recipients to come here.

proposals to freeze nuclear weapons production and stockpiles as soon as controls can be organized.

They also were impressed by Kennedy's overtures for a Berlin settlement coupled with his blunt warning that if the Soviet Union tries to take over the divided city, the United States stands ready to use nuclear weapons.

Kennedy's challenge to the Soviet Union to join in a race for peace leading to full disarmament made no visible imprint on the Communist bloc members who sat silently while the rest of the hall applauded.

Gromyko's first reaction was noncommittal. Talking with newsmen outside the Soviet U.N. mission on Park Avenue he was asked if he saw any hopeful signs in the speech.

"I would not go so far," he said. "I want to study it more thoroughly."

He repeated Moscow's announced intention to sign a separate peace treaty with Communist East Germany, adding that some aspects of the speech "do not meet our objections regarding the possibility of negotiations on Germany."

Little hope was held for progress on the arms question at this stage in view of the discouraging report the Soviet Union and the United States made to the United Nations last week. The two powers disclosed complete failure to agree during three months of discussion on a way to resume full East-West negotiations.

The main sticking point has been Soviet insistence that the makeup of any new disarmament conference should be based on the troika principle—the same issue that has deadlocked selection of a successor to the late Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld.

The Soviets insist that participants at an arms conference be divided among three numerically equal groups of nations—Communists, Western and neutral. The United States has offered several alternative proposals.

Kennedy supported his disarmament appeal by having U.S. officials issue a 2,700-word statement to U.N. delegations on "general and complete disarmament in a peaceful world."

The proposals went into details on machinery to control disarmament and offered a few ideas that U.S. officials said could be acted on immediately.

These were an offer to sign a nuclear test ban treaty and a proposal for all nuclear powers to agree not to give atomic weapons or know-how to countries now outside the atomic club.

Gen. Eichelberger Dies

ASHEVILLE, N.C. (AP)—Gen. Robert L. Eichelberger, 75, commander of the U.S. 8th Army in the Pacific in World War II and former superintendent of the U.S. Military Academy at West Point, N. Y., died here early today.

President Signs Bill Creating New Agency

Red Radio Labels Proposal to U.N. As Unsatisfactory

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

President Kennedy today followed up his challenge to Russia to engage in a "race for peace" by signing a bill setting up a new U.S. arms control and disarmament agency.

But Moscow was not impressed. Its government radio asserted that the Kennedy proposal to the United Nations General Assembly Monday are unsatisfactory.

Moscow radio declared: "The U.S. program makes no provision for the abolition of arms and armed forces, for the banning of nuclear and other forms of weapons of mass extermination, or for the liquidation of military bases on other people's territory."

The broadcast said that, as outlined by Kennedy, "the main emphasis is laid on the discontinuance of the production of fissionable materials and on control over the launching of devices into cosmic space."

"As is known," it added, "these measures alone are in no way capable of guaranteeing general and complete disarmament."

"Kennedy did not say a word about the attitude of the U.S.A. to such vitally urgent questions as the struggle of the Algerian people for independence, the national liberation struggle of the peoples of Angola or the situation in Southwest Africa."

Aerial Atomic Tests Seen Ahead for U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP)—American nuclear tests in the atmosphere will be necessary shortly if the Soviets fail to accept President Kennedy's new challenge to halt atmospheric shots, Sen. Henry M. Jackson, D-Wash., said today.

Jackson, who heads a Senate House Atomic Weapons subcommittee, said Kennedy was taking a calculated, but relatively minor, risk when he told the United Nations Monday this country and Great Britain are prepared to sign immediately a treaty to ban testing of all kinds. The Soviets have rejected the proposed treaty.

Kennedy noted the West also had proposed to end atmospheric testing, without inspection or control, "in order to save the human race from the poison of radioactive fallout."

The Soviets already have fired 15 atmospheric shots since they broke the three-year moratorium on tests. The United States has set off two underground explosions.

Some fears had been expressed by administration officials that once the Soviets had completed their series of tests they would announce they were ready to ban further atmospheric detonations and thus force the United States to reject their proposal or face the possibility of falling behind in nuclear weaponry.

Monte Carlo Thugs Get Half-Million

MONTE CARLO (AP)—Masked gunmen pulled off the largest jewel robbery of the summer on the Riviera Monday. Estimates of the loot ranged from $500,000 to more than twice that.

Three robbers, dressed in blue jeans and wearing scarves across their faces, entered the Clerc jewelry shop opposite the Monte Carlo Casino in the morning, when most residents of the neighborhood were sleeping. They forced an elderly saleswoman, alone in the store, to lie on the floor and scooped jewels from display cases.

On the Circleville ballot will be a request for renewal of a 3.4 mill levy combined with an additional .6 mills expected to provide an extra $20,000 annually for the next 10 years. Teays Valley Local School District seeks a renewal of a 6.0 mill levy for the next five years.

City Superintendent of Schools George A. Hartman has explained the city school's proposal is actually an attempt to regain millage lost in a re-evaluation of property since the original levy was approved five years ago.

At that time the tax levy was voted as a full 4.0 mills for each one hundred dollars of property valuation within the city. When property is re-evaluated, however, state law stipulates existing millage must be lowered to provide the same actual amount of income.

THUS THE city school millage was decreased to 3.4 from the original 4.0. The proposal to be placed before voters this year would, if approved, retain the 3.4 mills tax for an indefinite period of time in accordance with state law.

It would also enact the additional .6 mills for five years, returning city district millage to its previous level of 4.0.

Hartman pointed out when additional classroom space is opened in the fall of 1962, the city school system will need "at least seven more teachers." He added the additional $20,000 provided by the levy would fail to cover the increased cost of operation, meaning economy measures will be necessary in other phases of the school budget.

"The schools are on thin financial ice now. If the levy fails our operation would be paralyzed," Hartman said.

The Teays Valley request is for a renewal of a six mill levy for another five years. The tax provides 60 cents in revenue for each $100 of property valuation in the district. A simple majority is necessary for passage of both measures.

Power Failures Reported Over Wide Area

Power failures were reported over a wide area. In the small Morgan County communities of Stockport and Chesterhill, telephone operators used storage batteries to keep the phones working while electricity was off.

Other power failures darkened McConnelsville, Cambridge and St. Clairsville.

Many trees were uprooted. They fell across cars, homes and highways but no injuries were reported.

In McConnelsville, the Morgan County seat, walnut-sized hail lasted two to three minutes, smashing windows open to the driving wind.

Cops Wonder: Is He Ghost?

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—A burglary suspect arrested by Dayton police was accused of breaking into a suburban Kettering store about two weeks ago.

Monday he came up with the best alibi detectives believe they've ever heard.

He told them that at the time of the crime he was buried. He explained he had been buried in a coffin for 2 1/2 days at an Indiana fairground as part of a stunt.

The stroke knocked him unconscious Sunday outside a friend's home in nearby Franklin, and neighbors who went to his aid contended they could find no heart beat in the boy.

The youngster revived in an ambulance enroute to Middletown Hospital and was released after examination which showed no injury beyond shock.

TOUGH, TEMPERED STAND — President Kennedy tells the United Nations Assembly that the U.S. would use any means — including nuclear arms — to preserve its rights in West Berlin. He also offered a comprehensive disarmament program. At right, he shakes hands with Russia's Andrei Gromyko after his address. Others are Mrs. Kennedy, Adlai Stevenson and Soviet Ambassador Valerian Zorin.

Storm Lashes Parts of Ohio

Vicious Winds, Hail Are Recorded Monday

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The first vicious storm of autumn lashed Ohio Monday. Power and phone service was disrupted. Falling trees damaged homes and blocked highways.

Walnut-sized hail pounded out windows. And one man was killed by lightning.

The screen of a drive-in theater east of Portsmouth was bowled over by heavy winds. A Portsmouth radio station was knocked off the air for more than an hour because of a power failure.

A light plane made an emergency landing at the old Cambridge Airport after its pilot sighted menacing clouds. The craft, however, was not tied down and the wind flipped it over.

Ronald M. Park 31, of Rt. 5, Chillicothe, was hunting squirrels on a farm five miles north of there when a rainstorm broke out. He took shelter under a tree which was hit by a lightning bolt, killing him.

The storm was freakish in its actions. It tore to pieces a 40-by-60-foot machine shed east of McConnelsville, but the machinery and a crib of corn inside were left intact.

New York Ships

Reliefers 'Home'

NEW YORK (AP) — City and state officials are speeding the return to other states and Puerto Rico of families they say come to New York and go on relief but make no attempt to find work.

Peter Kasius, deputy state welfare commissioner, disclosed Monday that 142 welfare applicants returned — at New York's taxpayers' expense — to their home states and Puerto Rico in the past two months.

Of these, Kasius said, 43 returned to Puerto Rico and 52 to Southern states.

Kasius' disclosure followed charges last week by officials in New York that some states were laying out money for welfare recipients to come here.

U.N. Awaits Red Reply to Kennedy

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—U.N. delegates saw little hope today that the Soviet Union will soften its position in replying to President Kennedy's call for new negotiations on disarmament and the Berlin crisis.

Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko is expected to hold fast to the Kremlin's over-all stand on these and other international issues when he makes his policy statement before the 99-nation General Assembly.

Western diplomats and many neutrals were impressed by Kennedy's broad new disarmament proposals to freeze nuclear weapons production and stockpiles as soon as controls can be organized.

They also were impressed by Kennedy's overtures for a Berlin settlement coupled with his blunt warning that if the Soviet Union tries to take over the divided city, the United States stands ready to use nuclear weapons.

Kennedy's challenge to the Soviet Union to join in a race for peace leading to full disarmament made no visible imprint on the Communist bloc members who sat silently while the rest of the hall applauded.

Gromyko's first reaction was noncommittal. Talking with newsmen outside the Soviet U.N. mission on Park Avenue he was asked if he saw any hopeful signs in the speech.

"I would not go so far," he said. "I want to study it more thoroughly."

He repeated Moscow's announced intention to sign a separate peace treaty with Communist East Germany, adding that some aspects of the speech "do not meet our objections regarding the possibility of negotiations on Germany."

Little hope was held for progress on the arms question at this stage in view of the discouraging report the Soviet Union and the United States made to the United Nations last week. The two powers disclosed complete failure to agree during three months of discussion on a way to resume full East-West negotiations.

The main sticking point has been Soviet insistence that the makeup of any new disarmament conference should be based on the troika principle—the same issue that has deadlocked selection of a successor to the late Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold.

The Soviets insist that participants at an arms conference be divided among three numerically equal groups of nations—Communist, Western and neutral. The United States has offered several alternative proposals.

Kennedy supported his disarmament appeal by having U.S. officials issue a 2,700-word statement to U.N. delegations on "general and complete disarmament in a peaceful world."

The proposals went into details on machinery to control disarmament and offered a few ideas that U.S. officials said could be acted on immediately.

These were an offer to sign a nuclear test ban treaty and a proposal for all nuclear powers to agree not to give atomic weapons or know-how to countries now outside the atomic club.

Gen. Eichelberger Dies

ASHEVILLE, N.C. (AP)—Gen. Robert L. Eichelberger, 75, commander of the U.S. 8th Army in the Pacific in World War II and former superintendent of the U.S. Military Academy at West Point, N. Y., died here early today.

President Signs Bill Creating New Agency

Red Radio Labels Proposal to U.N. As Unsatisfactory

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
President Kennedy today followed up his challenge to Russia to engage in a "race for peace" by signing a bill setting up a new U.S. arms control and disarmament agency.

But Moscow was not impressed. Its government radio asserted that the Kennedy proposal to the United Nations General Assembly Monday are unsatisfactory. Moscow radio declared:

"The U.S. program makes no provision for the abolition of arms and armed forces, for the banning of nuclear and other forms of weapons of mass extermination, or for the liquidation of military bases on other people's territory."

The broadcast said that, as outlined by Kennedy, "the main emphasis is laid on the discontinuance of the production of fissionable materials and on control over the launching of devices into cosmic space."

"As is known," it added, "these measures alone are in no way capable of guaranteeing general and complete disarmament."

"Kennedy did not say a word about the attitude of the U.S.A. to such vitally urgent questions as the struggle of the Algerian people for independence, the national liberation struggle of the peoples of Angola or the situation in Southwest Africa."

Aerial Atomic Tests Seen Ahead for U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP)—American nuclear tests in the atmosphere will be necessary shortly if the Soviets fail to accept President Kennedy's new challenge to halt atmospheric shots, Sen. Henry M. Jackson, D-Wash., said today.

Jackson, who heads a Senate House Atomic Weapons subcommittee, said Kennedy was taking a calculated, but relatively minor, risk when he told the United Nations Monday this country and Great Britain are prepared to sign immediately a treaty to ban testing of all kinds. The Soviets have rejected the proposed treaty.

Kennedy noted the West also had proposed to end atmospheric testing, without inspection or control, "in order to save the human race from the poison of radioactive fallout."

The Soviets already have fired 15 atmospheric shots since they broke the three-year moratorium on tests. The United States has set off two underground explosions.

Some fears had been expressed by administration officials that once the Soviets had completed their series of tests they would announce they were ready to ban further atmospheric detonations and thus force the United States to reject their proposal or face the possibility of falling behind in nuclear weaponry.

Monte Carlo Thugs Get Half-Million

MONTE CARLO (AP)—Masked gunmen pulled off the largest jewel robbery of the summer on the Riviera Monday. Estimates of the loot ranged from $500,000 to more than twice that.

Three robbers, dressed in blue jeans and wearing scarves across their faces, entered the Clerc jewelry shop opposite the Monte Carlo Casino in the morning, when most residents of the neighborhood were sleeping. They forced an elderly saleswoman, alone in the store, to lie on the floor and scooped jewels from display cases.

Well-Child Clinic Service Aided by Community Fund

One of six services receiving aid from the Pickaway County Community Fund is the Pickaway County and Circleville Well - Child Clinic.

Local function of the Well-Child Clinic is to provide continuous health supervision for preschool children whose parents are unable to obtain this care. It also is a medium for teaching these parents fundamental child care.

Eligible for this combined education and health service are children whose parents are currently on one of the local welfare programs or who are referred by family physicians for continuous medical supervision.

Services by the clinic during the first six months of membership in the Community Fund included 319 clinic visits, 83 new patients admitted, 205 medical examinations by local physicians, 347 immunizations given with vaccine provided by the City and County Health Departments and 21 follow - ups on clinic patients.

The Well-Child Clinic is conducted the second Wednesday of each month at Berger Hospital. The hospital board of governors provides space and limited laboratory services.

Six local doctors donate their services, along with aid by members of the Medical Auxiliary, Pickaway County Registered Nurses Assn. and other women. Admitted are children from 2-months to 6-years-old.

Executive Board members of the clinic are Doctors H. H. Swope and Frank Moore, Nurses Helen Pickens, Pauline T. Kirkpatrick, Emerita Smith, Jacqueline Alvarez, and Jean Hedges and Marsha Moore.

Tax Stamp Sales Decline for Week

Gross sales of tax stamp revenue took a decided drop here last week, the Pickaway County Treasurer's Office reported today.

For the week ending Sept. 23, gross receipts amounted to only $3,675. This was compared to total sales of $5,559.04 in stamps for the week which ended Sept. 16.

The decline was attributed mostly to the higher sales of the previous two weeks, during which most merchants purchased stamp supplies for the month.

President Signs

dismissed in a single sentence—"The President" devoted considerable attention to the German problem and, in particular, to the question of West Berlin."

With his challenge to Russia clearly in mind, Kennedy signed the new arms agency bill with ceremony. The measure was passed by Congress three days ago.

The man expected to head the new disarmament agency, William C. Foster, was among government officials and private citizens invited to attend the signing.

Foster is a former foreign aid administrator and assistant secretary of defense.

Kennedy recommended the legislation setting up the agency saying it was needed to draft disarmament proposals and to conduct research in methods of supervising the control arms.

After the signing the President will head for a six - day vacation at Newport, R.I.

Kennedy had a breakfast engagement in his suite at the up-town Hotel Carlyle with President Arturo Frondizi of Argentina.

Press secretary Pierre Salinger said reports reaching the president described reaction to his U.N. speech as excellent. Adlai E. Stevenson, U.S. ambassador to the United Nations, told newsmen he had encountered "universal enthusiastic approval," especially of Kennedy's proposals for disarmament and a strong U.N. executive.

Kennedy's own evaluation of the results of his first appearance before the United Nations was not apparent. He made personal soundings with widely scattered sources, lunching with Latin American officials and conferring with neutralist Prince Norodom Sihanouk of Cambodia.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up .90 at 249.20 with industrials up 1.50, rails up .30 and utilities up .30.

Gains of key stocks ran mostly from fractions to about a point while some of the "growth" stocks, which have taken severe losses recently recouped several points.

Brokers saw it as a technical recovery.

The recovery was fairly unanimous except for aluminum and steels, both affected by price situations in their industries—aluminum by a further price cut and steels by administration hostility to an advance in steel prices.

The trend was higher among motors, chemicals, electrical equipments, drugs, utilities, tobacco, rubbers, farm implements and electronics.

Coppers, steady at the start, turned mixed as news spread of a cut in the price of copper scrap.

Chemicals put on quite a sturdy performance. Du Pont, Union Carbide and Allied Chemical were all up a point or so.

Oils showed little or no change as the session went on.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was up 3.56 at 695.42.

Prices on the American Stock Exchange were mostly higher in fairly active trading.

Corporate and U.S. government bonds were higher on balance. Trading was moderate.

Foreign Aid Bill Still Snagged In Congress

Adjournment Sought
As Deadlock Appears
During Conferences

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congress inches on today toward adjournment with the foreign aid money bill still not ready for final approval.

House-Senate conferees ended in deadlock Monday night in their effort to resolve differences. One senator reported the conferees were within about $60 million of agreement when the meeting broke up. Originally, the difference between House and Senate bills was more than $500 million.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana said he would bring up the $1.06 billion supplemental appropriation bill as soon as the Senate met today.

This is the final bill of the session which must pass the Senate and be settled in conference with the House.

Conferees worked out agreement Monday on one of the other two big appropriations bills which have not yet been sent to President Kennedy.

A compromise version of a public works measure carrying nearly $4 billion for rivers and harbors, flood control, reclamation and atomic energy projects is ready for final House and Senate action.

The House slashed more than $1 billion from Kennedy's original requests for foreign aid and appropriated $3,657,500,000. The Senate voted $4,196,600,000 for all forms of military and economic assistance requiring annual appropriation.

Sen. Warren Magnuson, D-Wash., said the difference had been narrowed to about $60 million when a deadlock developed over how much unused money from last year could be carried over for spending in the present fiscal year.

The Senate ratified two minor treaties on international communications agreements and sent to Kennedy a compromise bill legalizing use of dual freight rate schedules by steamship companies.

Late in the day the Senate turned to the Du Pont tax bill which technically had been its pending business since Saturday.

The pending bill would give tax relief to Du Pont stockholders if the company carries out the divestiture by distributing the GM shares to its stockholder.

Ex-Katanga Chief Held For Treason

ELISABETHVILLE Katanga (AP)—President Moise Tshombe of Katanga announced Monday night his former chief of staff, Capt. Mwamba, is under arrest awaiting trial for treason.

Tshombe told a news conference Mwamba had dealt with U.N. officials in contravention of orders of his military superiors and the president. He said he will be brought before a military court.

No details of the charges were made public. It was reported Mwamba was in touch with the U.N. intelligence chief, Col. Bjorn Egge of Norway, during efforts to arrange a cease-fire soon after the fighting broke out in Elisabethville Sept. 13.

Egge has said he was escorted into the presidential residence by Mwamba during attempts to get negotiations started.

Tshombe said 17 Belgian officers had left his secessionist province and insisted they were the last remaining foreign advisers with his army.

The United Nations had charged that white officers supervised Katanga military operations against U.N. forces.

The president said that in fact these 17 were kept on with U.N. permission to help the Katangan forces with purely administrative problems.

The charge that they had led military operations, he said, was part of a U.N. attempt to explain what he called its defeat in Katanga.

Tshombe declared that not a single European has any voice in running his state.

Allies Praise Kennedy Talk, Communists Remain Hostile

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
President Kennedy's speech to the United Nations drew warm praise today from America's friends and allies. First Communist reaction was hostile.

Returns were awaited from the nonaligned nations, who were cast in a vital role by Kennedy. He appealed to them to help save the United Nations by working for a strong secretary-general and to participate in disarmament.

The first significant neutralist comment came from Prince Norodom Sihanouk, chief of state of Cambodia. He visited Kennedy at his New York hotel and told newsmen that Cambodia adopts the same position toward disarmament as Kennedy in his speech. "With controls," he stressed.

Moscow radio and the Soviet news agency Tass reported without comment that the President had addressed the General Assembly and "dwelt on the activity of the United Nations, the question of disarmament, the so-called Berlin crisis, and the question of colonialism."

The East German news agency ADN reported at length on the portions dealing with Germany and Berlin, accusing Kennedy of deliberately distorting the Soviet position. The agency said "he spoke of U. S. willingness to negotiate without submitting any concrete proposals."

Chinese Communist reaction appeared in the Ta Kung Pao of Hong Kong, a Red newspaper which follows Peiping's line. It accused Kennedy of mouthing "empty propaganda phrases."

A British Foreign Office statement said the plan "represents a realistic and practicable basis for negotiations."

British officials also privately raised Kennedy's statement that "we seek no perfect solution." The British have long felt that U. S. policy tended too much toward absolute solutions that would not end the cold war.

Non-Communist Asians reacted warmly and with raise.

Newspapers everywhere outside of mainland China gave it top play.

The Japanese Foreign Ministry called the speech "a welcome reaffirmation of the United States position on world problems." The Japanese were pleased with Kennedy's proposals for an end to nuclear tests and for general disarmament.

In Canada, Lester B. Pearson, Nobel Peace Prize winner and former U.N. Assembly president said the speech put the Western world on a peace offensive.

This aspect drew mild criticism from a liberal newspaper in Denmark. The Politiken said the disarmament proposal "reminds one too much of tactics. A nuclear ban is a realistic and important thing. But proposing general nuclear disarmament unrelated to other kinds of disarmament control is either too naive or too smart. Kennedy knows the Soviet Union cannot accept his proposal."

Yet it was Kennedy's disarmament proposals that attracted attention in India, a leader of the nonaligned nations. The Hindustan Times, a supporter of Prime Minister Nehru's Congress party, played up the President's appeal for a nuclear test ban treaty and his step-by-step disarmament plan.

In Sweden, a neutral nation basically friendly to the West, Stockholm's liberal Dagens Nyheter said: "It was a speech written in small letters, a speech free from accusations and threats, a speech which, lacking every tone of aggressiveness, differed as radically as possible from what has been performed by Moscow recently."

Personal Business

For many centuries there have been religious and legal prohibitions against suicide.

While the question may seem to be a minor one on the world's stormy agenda, it is interesting that the British Parliament has ruled taking one's own life, or attempting to take it, is no longer a crime.

Parliament did take the precaution, however, of discouraging "suicide pacts" by making survivors who abetted them liable to a maximum of 14 years' imprisonment.

But apart from these pacts and the increased penalties for them, it is doubtful wisdom to have removed attempted suicide generally from the list of crimes even if it is true that most attempts may have been undetected, and that many discovered attempts were not followed through for reasons of sympathy.

Sympathy is and should be a powerful factor in assessing human motives and actions, and surely there must be a great measure of it for people who are so distraught or discouraged that they attempt suicide, or even contemplate attempting it. But sympathy and consideration are also the rights of society.

Society should have protection from the unnecessary disturbance of horror. While this may apply to only a minority, suicide attempts can be gruesome. They can revolt or at least offend the peace of the community.

If a suicide attempt is a violent one and must be investigated by society's agents — police officers, the coroner, etc. — to distinguish it from murder, then it is far from being merely "one's own business."

Certainly such relaxation of British law will do nothing to discourage individual suicide attempts.

The Summer of Ignorance

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP)—When you are young, sometimes you reach to knowledge exceeds your grasp.

Your reading can confuse you with reality.

I would like to tell you an experience of my own that taught me an unforgettable lesson: Never trust a country boy if that is all he can brag about.

Mother in tears—I didn't cry—came down to wave me farewell as I stormed aboard a train that would carry me 45 miles from Kansas City on the Missouri River to Lexington down the same river.

It was the summer of my ignorance and I went to where my father was born—where his father from Ireland before him had dug soft coal and raised 14 children.

To me it was all new. I was the son of one of the youngest sons of the family. My father had built a business—a grocery store.

My hostess was my father's sister, whose husband then still dug coal. My father loved her dearly as he did all his sisters and brothers. My aunt had to kids, double what I was used to at home.

Being from Kansas City, I was amazed at the number of raisins that carpeted the ceiling. I was even more surprised to find that the raisins had wings and were flies. That's the welcome you got in the old soft coal days.

Well, my country cousins played the usual tricks that rural egotism employs, such as getting you to mix stale chocolates and chewing tobacco, then gnaw a live elm hole for relief.

That was part of your belonging. I didn't mind the tricks—except one.

That was when as a child away from home I was invited to hold the bag in a snipe hunt. The idea was that the victim held a gunnysack before a lighted candle and waited for a snipe to leap across the light into the bag.

One of the reasons I held the bag before the candle so earnestly and so long was that I had read in nature study books there was a bird called the snipe. I was willing to believe, although I hadn't met one in Missouri.

As I held the empty bag in the lonely dark with the night gathering in my heart, I knew I would never believe as much as I had before.

But in the years since then I have gone a bit farther.

There is a snipe. There was a snipe then.

And I have been where the snipe flies.

How Nations Stand

By George Sokolsky

In 1951, the United Nations had 60 members; in 1961, the United Nations has 99 members. This enormous increase in membership shifts the center of power in that body and imperils the United States.

Vladimir Petrov, an accepted authority of current Russian and Chinese affairs, has written a book for the Shoe String Press, entitled "What China Policy?"

In this book, he, like the Belgrade Conference, drops the term, "neutral nations," and uses "nonaligned nations." Petrov apparently believes that there are no longer any neutrals, which is sound doctrine. There are no nations which are really not aligned.

I herewith give his list of how nations line up, and although this list was composed in the Summer of 1961, there are already some changes, so swift are the shifts in current politics. Herewith Petrov's list:

"West: The NATO group.

"Pro - Western: Spain, Iran, Pakistan, Thailand, South Vietnam, the Philippines, Republic of China, South Korea, Japan, Australia, New Zealand, most of Latin America. (Here grave changes have taken place and are taking place.)

"Pro - Western 'neutrals': Sweden, Switzerland, Austria, most of the former French Africa, Israel, Jordan, Malaya.

"Anti - Communist 'neutrals': Tunisia, Libya, Lebanon, Saudi Arabia, Union of South Africa, the Congo (Leopoldville), Haiti, Dominican Republic, Cyprus, Vatican, Laos.

"Anti-Western 'neutrals': Ethiopia, most of the former British Africa, Iraq, India, Nepal, Cambodia.

"Communist - oriented 'neutrals': Finland, Morocco, Ghana, Somalia, Yemen, Afghanistan, Burma, Indonesia, Ceylon.

"Communist: The Soviet Union, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Roumania, Bulgaria, Albania, East Germany, Communist China, Outer Mongolia, North Vietnam, North Korea."

Petrov makes the point that since 1948, there has been no marked shift from favoring Russia to favoring the United States. Note must be taken of the attitudes of Nehru and Nasser at the Belgrade Conference which might indicate a weariness with Khrushchev.

On the other hand many of the countries which we assumed were pro-West — which literally means pro-United States, actually lean toward Russia.

The admission of Red China into the United Nations might be regarded as a test of Communist strength in the United Nations, Petrov

rov says of this:

"... the elevation of Communist China to a role as one of the guardians of international peace and security in the Security Council would automatically increase the dangers to the independence of countries like South Korea, the Philippines, South Vietnam, Laos, Malaya, or Thailand. Their shaky regimes would feel abandoned and might well fall easy prey to pressures emanating from the most powerful nation of the region, even if the Chinese Communists did not resort to overt aggression.

The pro-Western governments of these countries might, for a short time, give place to 'neutralist' ones as a stage before landing in the Communist camp. The United Nations, quite clearly, could do nothing to prevent this from happening. In other words, one more group of nations would lose their independence and Communist China would acquire a belt of satellites in the Soviet fashion."

Obviously, Petrov is correct, for we are already witnessing this process in Laos and in addition we are witnessing the astonishing effort to turn the Congo into a Communist state. Is this effort associated with the death of Dag Hammarskjöld? Was his a political murder or an accident?

There are some who believe that Soviet Russia would be weakened if steps were taken to please Red China. No Communist has quarrelled with the Kremlin more violently than Tito, but when it comes to voting in the United Nations, Yugoslavia generally goes along with Soviet Russia in basic questions.

The reason is that for a Communist it is important that fundamental Marxism must not fail. Intramural quarrels must not be permitted to strengthen the anti-Communists. There are many economic, geographic and ideological reasons why Red China and Soviet Russia will not split when the issue is so basic as likely to bring on the defeat of Marxism throughout the world.

We generally think in terms of countries, of nations. It is difficult for us to conceive of the Soviet Universal State — a conglomeration of nearly a billion human beings of a variety of cultures and racial heritages. It is this mass that we are dealing with when we speak of the Marxist world.

West Wins Tug-of-War For Lady, 77

BERLIN, (AP) — A 77-year-old woman hung from a second story window on the border between East and West Berlin. Communist police tugged at her hands, a West Berliner at her feet.

Finally, she fell into a West Berlin fire net unharmed.

At 11:30, a West Berlin fire truck drove up and the firemen spread their net. First, the woman threw out a shopping bag containing a few personal belongings, and — a witness said — her cat. Then the old woman herself climbed out and stood on a ledge below the window.

But she couldn't make up her mind. A young West Berliner climbed on to the ledge of the bricked-up ground-floor window. He slipped and fell into the net. A second climbed up and grabbed at the woman's foot. Her shoe came off in his hand.

At that point the Communist police showed up at the window and grabbed her by the arms. Up climbed the two West Berliners again. One caught her by the leg. He pulled. The police tugged. Finally the West Berliner just dropped, still hanging on to the woman's leg. They landed together in the net.

'No Future' Seen For 9 Ohio Counties

OXFORD, Ohio (AP) — Gov. Michael V. DiSalle says Ohio has counties where parents send their children to college to get them out of the county—because it has no future.

The governor opened a three-day seminar for newsmen on state government and money problems Sunday night, and noted nine Ohio counties lost population between 1950 and 1960. He did not name them.

He said, "You just go visit them and you find they send their kids to college, but it's because they figure they are sending them out of the county because they don't have any hope in the county."

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

JOHN MASON BROWN, at present engaged upon a definitive biography of the late Robert Sherwood, is, without qualification, the most popular women's club lecturer in the country. When a Southern aunt heard how much Mr. Brown takes in each year for his speaking tours, she exclaimed in utter disbelief, "You don't mean to say that one of us Browns is actually being PAID for TALKING!"

It was the late Professor Irwin Edman, reveals Publisher Max Schuster, who first sang the praises of Author Herman Wouk, author of "The Caine Mutiny" and "Marjorie Morningstar." "In fact," says Schuster, "Edman was the catalytic agent." Asked "exactly what is a catalytic agent?" Schuster explained loftily, "A catalytic agent is one who doesn't receive ten percent."

A man who hides behind a woman's skirts today, opines Charles Denton, is not only a coward, but a magician.

Doubting Thomas: Why all the prescriptions, if psoriasis can't be cured?

M.D.: Don't you want to control it?

D.T.: And pay through the nose just to clear my skin for a few days?

M.D.: It only costs a few pennies to control those red bumps and silvery scales in back of your elbows.

D.T.: And in front of my knees! How?

M.D.: Eat less animal fat.

D.T.: To help psoriasis?

M.D.: Yes. These silvery scales pile up because the outside horny layer of skin doesn't flake off. Perhaps your skin can't handle fats.

D.T.: Do I treat the scales?

M.D.: Sunlight helps — and it's free! Take a warm bedtime bath or shower. Use soft brushes to brush dead scales away. Then use an ointment.

D.T.: Which? There are hundreds!

M.D.: A protective ointment that softens scales like zinc oxide paste U.S.P., hydrophilic petrolatum U.S.P. or commercially-made Aquaphor (R).

D.T.: Any favorite?

M.D.: No. They're all good. Between flare-ups, ask the druggist to add 2 per cent salicylic acid to the ointment to speed peeling. Use the ointment morning and night.

D.T.: What? And go to work with greasy elbows?

M.D.: To cut grease, use 2 per cent salicylic acid in coal tar solution U.S.P. each morning.

D.T.: How about a shampoo? My head's covered with scales.

M.D.: Shampoo nightly with 2 per cent salicylic acid in olive oil. Add 2 per cent resorcinol to make a super-shampoo!

D.T.: Any other drugs?

M.D.: Many — sulfur, coal, tar and so on. Let's try the simple remedies first.

D.T.: Any pills?

M.D.: We may try giant vitamin A capsules later, but they have effects. Antihistamine medicines can soothe itching.

D.T.: I know I'll conquer psoriasis.

M.D.: How?

D.T.: With all you've told me, it should be easy to tip the scales in my favor!

The Business World

By Sam Dawson

NEW YORK (AP)—Services are the fastest growing portion of the economy and today take about 40 cents of every dollar consumers spend. They have provided the biggest increase in the number of jobs. Also they have accounted for much of the rise in the cost of living.

Indications that consumers will pay more than $140 billion this year for all types of services leave some businessmen far from happy. They are the makers of hard goods, like autos and appliances, and the merchants who sell both hard and soft goods.

Their worry: If the consumer spends more and more on services, there is less of his spendable dollar left to go for goods.

But many of the services owe their very being to making and sale of these goods. For example, when you buy a home appliance you please some utility company as well as the merchant and the appliance makers.

You'll be using the services of someone to install the appliance, and in time you're likely to use a repair man. Also you may need the services of a financing company and an insurance company when you buy a car or a major appliance.

There's another side to it, as noted today by the economics department of the Chase Manhattan Bank, New York. When you buy an appliance you may be cutting down on the need of some services. Example: The declining importance of domestic service workers. Or when you buy a car, you may cut further into the need for intercity rail and bus transportation.

Since 1946 consumer prices as a whole have gone up 52 per cent while the average rise in the service component has been 65 per cent. Department of Labor statistics show a wide variance in the rise of service prices in the last 14 years. Electricity rates on average have risen 11 per cent, while the cost of a hospital room has gone up 205 per cent.

Commerce Department figures show Americans spent $19.6 billion last year for household operation, including electricity, phone, gas and water charges, domestic service and miscellaneous expenses.

Another $20.6 billion went for interest paid on nonmortgage debt, life insurance, legal, investment and bank fees.

Medical service accounted for $16.2 billion. Outlays for hospital care went up most, followed by payments for medical insurance.

Transportation took $10.5 billion recreation $6.4 billion; personal appearance $6.1 billion; religion and welfare $4.7 billion; private education $4.5 billion; and foreign travel $2.6 billion.

In the last 14 years the fastest growing item was interest on non-mortgage debt.

BG Trustee Chief Offers 5-Point Plan

BOWLING GREEN, Ohio (AP) —E. Tappen Rodgers of Tiffin, president of the board of trustees of Bowling Green State University, Monday made public some recommendations designed to solve some of the university's recent problems.

Rodgers said the report focuses attention on five points, the first of which was the resignation of Dr. Ralph W. McDonald after 10 years in the presidency. This makes necessary immediate search for a successor, and the trustees said they should be aided by the counsel of administrative officers, the faculty and alumni.

A second point said the new administration and faculty "should give increased attention to policies adequate to accommodate and include a large component of graduate work."

A third stated that trustees and president "should develop a pattern which will permit a greater delegation of responsibility to administrative officers."

The fourth point said that the administration, working with faculty and student representatives, "should reconsider several established practices with a view of resolving current issues."

On the fifth point, the report said that the cases of faculty members whose contracts have lately been terminated or who have been removed from chairmanship should be reviewed in accordance with the improved administration processes.

For many centuries there have been religious and legal prohibitions against suicide.

While the question may seem to be a minor one on the world's stormy agenda, it is interesting that the British Parliament has ruled taking one's own life, or attempting to take it, is no longer a crime.

Parliament did take the precaution, however, of discouraging "suicide pacts" by making survivors who abetted them liable to a maximum of 14 years' imprisonment.

But apart from these pacts and the increased penalties for them, it is doubtful wisdom to have removed attempted suicide generally from the list of crimes even if it is true that most attempts may have been undetected, and that many discovered attempts were not followed through for reasons of sympathy.

Sympathy is and should be a powerful factor in assessing human motives and actions, and surely there must be a great measure of it for people who are so distraught or discouraged that they attempt suicide, or even contemplate attempting it. But sympathy and consideration are also the rights of society.

Society should have protection from the unnecessary disturbance of horror. While this may apply to only a minority, suicide attempts can be gruesome. They can revolt or at least offend the peace of the community.

If a suicide attempt is a violent one and must be investigated by society's agents — police officers, the coroner, etc. — to distinguish it from murder, then it is far from being merely "one's own business."

Certainly such relaxation of British law will do nothing to discourage individual suicide attempts.

The Summer of Ignorance

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP)—When you are young, sometimes your reach to knowledge exceeds your grasp.

Your reading can confuse you with reality.

I would like to tell you an experience of my own that taught me an unforgettable lesson: Never trust a country boy if that is all he can brag about.

Mother in tears—I didn't cry—came down to wave me farewell as I stormed aboard a train that would carry me 45 miles from Kansas City on the Missouri River to Lexington down the same river.

It was the summer of my ignorance and I went to where my father was born—where his father from Ireland before him had dug soft coal and raised 14 children.

To me it was all new. I was the son of one of the youngest sons of the family. My father had built a business—a grocery store.

My hostess was my father's sister, whose husband then still dug coal. My father loved her dearly as he did all his sisters and brothers. My aunt had 10 kids, double what I was used to at home.

Being from Kansas City, I was amazed at the number of raisins that carpeted the ceiling. I was even more surprised to find that the raisins had wings and were flies. That's the welcome you got in the old soft coal days.

Well, my country cousins played the usual tricks that rural egotism employs, such as getting you to mix stale chocolates and chewing tobacco, then gnaw a live elm bole for relief.

That was part of your belonging. I didn't mind the tricks—except one.

That was when as a child away from home I was invited to hold the bag in a snipe hunt. The idea was that the victim held a gunny-sack before a lighted candle and waited for a snipe to leap across the light into the bag.

One of the reasons I held the bag before the candle so earnestly and so long was that I had read in nature study books there was a bird called the snipe. I was willing to believe, although I hadn't met one in Missouri.

As I held the empty bag in the lonely dark with the night gathering in my heart, I knew I would never believe as much as I had before.

But in the years since then I have gone a bit farther. There is a snipe. There was a snipe then.

And I have been where the snipe flies.

How Nations Stand

West Wins Tug-of-War For Lady, 77

BERLIN (AP) — A 77-year-old woman hung from a second story window on the border between East and West Berlin. Communist police tugged at her hands, a West Berliner at her feet.

Finally, she fell into a West Berlin fire net unharmed.

At 11:30, a West Berlin fire truck drove up and the firemen spread their net. First, the woman threw out a shopping bag containing a few personal belongings, and — a witness said — her cat. Then the old woman herself climbed out and stood on a ledge below the window.

But she couldn't make up her mind. A young West Berliner climbed on to the ledge of the brickwork ground-floor window. He slipped and fell into the net. A second climbed up and grabbed at the woman's foot. Her shoe came off in his hand.

At that point the Communist police showed up at the window and grabbed her by the arms. Up climbed the two West Berliners again. One caught her by the leg. He pulled. The police tugged. Finally the West Berliner just dropped, still hanging on to the woman's leg. They landed together in the net.

'No Future' Seen For 9 Ohio Counties

OXFORD, Ohio (AP) — Gov. Michael V. DiSalle says Ohio has counties where parents send their children to college to get them out of the county—because it has no future.

The governor opened a three-day seminar for newsmen on state government and money problems Sunday night, and noted nine Ohio counties lost population between 1950 and 1960. He did not name them.

He said, "You just go visit them and you find they send their kids to college, but it's because they figure they are sending them out of the county because they don't have any hope in the county."

Vladimir Petrov, an accepted authority of current Russian and Chinese affairs, has written a book for the Shoe String Press, entitled "What China Policy?"

In this book, he, like the Belgrade Conference, drops the term, "neutral nations," and uses "non-aligned nations." Petrov apparently believes that there are no longer any neutrals, which is sound doctrine. There are no nations which are really not aligned.

I herewith give his list of how nations line up, and although this list was composed in the Summer of 1961, there are already some changes, so swift are the shifts in current politics. Herewith Petrov's list:

"West: The NATO group.

"Pro - Western: Spain, Iran, Pakistan, Thailand, South Vietnam, the Philippines, Republic of China, South Korea, Japan, Australia, New Zealand, most of Latin America. (Here grave changes have taken place and are taking place.)

"Pro - Western 'neutrals': Sweden, Switzerland, Austria, most of the former French Africa, Israel, Jordan, Malaysia.

"Anti - Communist 'neutrals': Tunisia, Libya, Lebanon, Saudi Arabia, Union of South Africa, the Congo (Leopoldville), Haiti, Dominican Republic, Cyprus, Vatican, Laos.

"Anti-Western 'neutrals': Ethiopia, most of the former British Africa, Iraq, India, Nepal, Cambodia.

"Communist - oriented 'neutrals': Finland, Morocco, Ghana, Somalia, Yemen, Afghanistan, Burma, Indonesia, Ceylon.

"Communist: The Soviet Union, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Roumania, Bulgaria, Albania, East Germany, Communist China, Outer Mongolia, North Vietnam, North Korea."

Petrov makes the point that since 1948, there has been no marked shift from favoring Russia to favoring the United States. Note must be taken of the attitudes of Nehru and Nasser at the Belgrade Conference which might indicate a weariness with Khrushchev.

On the other hand many of the countries which we assumed were pro-West — which literally means pro-United States, actually lean toward Russia.

The admission of Red China into the United Nations might be regarded as a test of Communist strength in the United Nations, Pet-

rov says of this:

"... the elevation of Communist China to a role as one of the guardians of international peace and security in the Security Council would automatically increase the dangers to the independence of countries like South Korea, the Philippines, South Vietnam, Laos, Malaysia, or Thailand. Their shaky regimes would feel abandoned and might well fall easy prey to pre-ture pressures emanating from the most powerful nation of the region, even if the Chinese Communists did not resort to overt aggression.

The pro-Western governments of these countries might, for a short time, give place to 'neutralist' ones as a stage before landing in the Communist camp. The United Nations, quite clearly, could do nothing to prevent this from happening. In other words, one more group of nations would lose their independence and Communist China would acquire a belt of satellites in the Soviet fashion."

Obviously, Petrov is correct, for we are already witnessing this process in Laos and in addition we are witnessing the astonishing effort to turn the Congo into a Communist state. Is this effort associated with the death of Dag Hammarskjöld? Was his political murder or an accident?

There are some who believe that Soviet Russia would be weakened if steps were taken to please Red China. No Communist has quarrelled with the Kremlin more violently than Tito, but when it comes to voting in the United Nations, Yugoslavia generally goes along with Soviet Russia in basic questions.

The reason is that for a Communist it is important that fundamental Marxism must not fail. Intramural quarrels must not be permitted to strengthen the anti-Communists. There are many economic, geographic and ideological reasons why Red China and Soviet Russia will not split when the issue is so basic as likely to bring on the defeat of Marxism throughout the world.

We generally think in terms of countries, of nations. It is difficult for us to conceive of the Soviet Universal State — a conglomeration of nearly a billion human beings of a variety of cultures and racial heritages. It is this mass that we are dealing with when we speak of the Marxist world.

It was the late Professor Irwin Edman, reveals Publisher Max Schuster, who first sang the praises of Author Herman Wouk, author of "The Caine Mutiny" and "Marjorie Morningstar." Film of 'West Side Story' Due To Set Expense Record

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — For the superlative-minded, "West Side Story" is the most expensive musical film ever made. It's also one of the best.

How can the brothers Mirisch spend $6 million on a musical? Especially one with a single expensive star—Natalie Wood at $250,000?

Take a high-priced stage property. Add a year's preparation with top talent—$250,000 on screen tests alone. Rehearse for three months. Shoot for half a year. Do it in color, stereo sound and 70mm film. The bill mounts.

Profit or no, the film version was worth the chance. There has never been greater dancing on the screen. Number after number stirred Hollywood previewers to applause.

The theme seems forbidding for a musical. It is the story of a power clash between a native New York City gang and another of Puerto Rican newcomers. Two lovers, one from each side, are caught in the middle.

"West Side Story" is really a

OU Branch Seen Boon to Portsmouth

PORTSMOUTH, Ohio (AP)—U. S. Secretary of Commerce Luther Hodges says the opening of Ohio University's day branch here will raise Portsmouth's cultural standing and the educational level of the community.

Speaking Sunday night at a dedication banquet in honor of the new branch campus, Hodges predicted to an audience of about 350 persons:

"I think you will find that more of your young people will be encouraged to stay or return to Scioto County and help you build your community's future. This will give you a sounder population growth, a younger, more vigorous citizenry."

The commerce secretary made the first public announcement that Portsmouth's Over-All Economic Development Program (OEDP) has been approved under provisions of the Area Redevelopment Act. He said the local OEDP is only the third in the nation to receive such approval.

Solon Snorts At 'Loaded' Poll Questions

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Stephen M. Young, D-Ohio, says many members of Congress are trying to fool the folks back home with "transparently self-serving" questionnaires and polls.

In a letter to constituents, Young cited this example of the kind of loaded questions he said some congressmen put to their voters:

"Do you consider we Americans should recklessly throw our taxpayers' money around all over the world?"

Young's comment: "Guess what! Probably the 'No' vote amounted to 90 per cent."

The question, he said, was asked in a post card poll by a congressman "vigorously opposed to the Kennedy foreign assistance program."

Young listed the following as another example of what he called a "self-serving" query that brings answers dear to the poll-taker's heart:

"Do you approve of the work and votes of your congressman in continuously supporting measures for economy in government?"

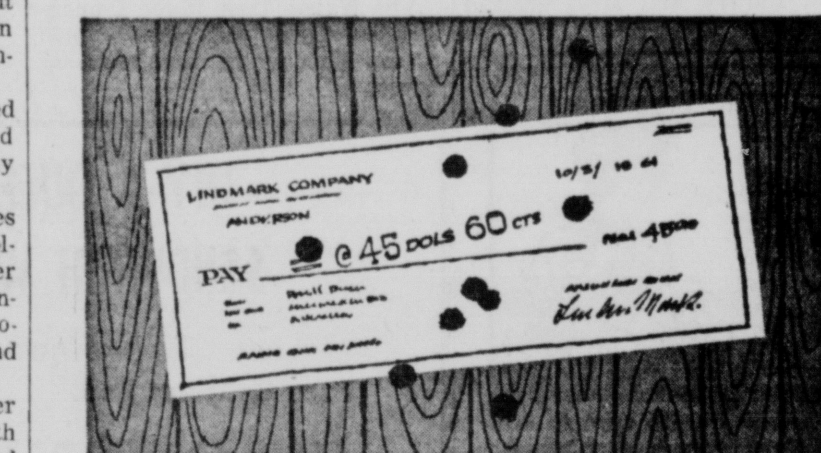

Just in case the voters missed the point, Young said the same congressman in the same questionnaire asked:

"Do you approve or disapprove of my continuous efforts to end duplication and waste in government?"

Young indicated he would be very much surprised if the congressman didn't get "at least 83 per cent affirmative answers to both questions."

Young's final word on the subject in his letter to constituents: "You will observe that Ohio congressional pollsters usually manage to come back with tallies corresponding strictly to a congressman's own thinking."

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
NEW YORK (AP)—Coincidence has a long arm and NBC's new cops-and-psychos series, "87th Precinct," twisted it like a pretzel Monday night.

Mental cases have almost completely replaced old fashioned robbers in TV's police action stories, so we're accustomed now to lonely hearts killers with sadistic impulses. Monday night's sick, sick man was a fellow who fancied himself—and literally was—a lady killer. His penchant for having his victims-to-be painfully tattooed was the important clue to his capture.

We also had the deaf mute wife of a police sergeant suddenly deciding to have herself tattooed. While in the needle artist's parlor she just happened to run into the killer her husband was after. Now that's a rare coincidence.

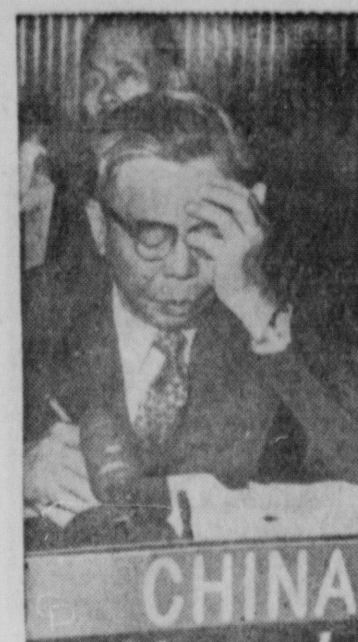

Pretty Gena Rowlands plays Teddy, the deaf-mute, and is a member of the regular cast, tattoo and all.

Robert Lansing is her husband, detective Steve Carella. He not only looks a little like Robert Stack of Eliot Ness fame, but plays in the same intense, grim style. There are three other detectives too, and presumably they will rotate the leading parts from week to week. All the other shows with multiple heroes do.

Next Sunday's "Meet the Press" guest on NBC will be Frederick Boland, Ireland's delegate to the United Nations and past president of the organization. Boland takes the seat originally reserved for Jack Paar, who at the height of his Berlin show controversy asked for a chance to take his case to the people. "Meet the Press" — and probably the NBC brass as well — apparently had some second thoughts about this and the invitation was withdrawn.

Recommended tonight: "Ichaboo and Me," premiere, CBS, 9-9:30 (EDT)—new comedy series starring Robert Sterling and George Chandler; Dick Powell Show, premiere, NBC, 9-10 — anthology series of dramas starting with "Who Killed Julie Greer," with a big star cast.

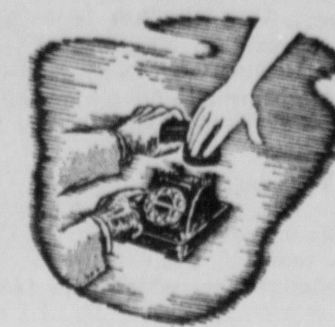

NO LIKE—Inclusion of the question of admitting Communist China to U.N. membership puts a grave expression on face of Nationalist China's Tingfu S. Tsiang as he takes notes at the U.N.

Film of 'West Side Story' Due To Set Expense Record

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — For the superlative-minded, "West Side Story" is the most expensive musical film ever made. It's also one of the best.

How can the brothers Mirisch spend $6 million on a musical? Especially one with a single expensive star—Natalie Wood at $250,000?

Take a high-priced stage property. Add a year's preparation with top talent—$250,000 on screen tests alone. Rehearse for three months. Shoot for half a year. Do it in color, stereo sound and 70mm film. The bill mounts.

Profit or no, the film version was worth the chance. There has never been greater dancing on the screen. Number after number stirred Hollywood previewers to applause.

The theme seems forbidding for a musical. It is the story of a power clash between a native New York City gang and another of Puerto Rican newcomers. Two lovers, one from each side, are caught in the middle.

"West Side Story" is really a dance opera. The powerful dances of Jerome Robbins and the highly charged music of Leonard Bernstein are perfect for the milling and rumbling of the New York gangs.

Mrs. Anderson Presents Talk On Antietam at Monday Club

The regular meeting of the Monday Club met in the Trustees Room of the Memorial Hall Monday evening, with Miss Mary K. May presiding.

Mrs. Harold Anderson, speaker for the meeting, presented a paper entitled "The Crisis at Antietam."

Mrs. Anderson began by saying, "a lazy stream in a lush countryside, an unpaved road cut deep by wagon wheels and washing rains, an arched stone bridge, a neat town in the distance — these unimpressive features of a quiet Maryland landscape made the setting in which one of the greatest moments of crisis in American history came to a solution on the bloody day of Sept. 17, 1862."

In all the American Civil War, no single day was bloodier or more costly than the one on the hills and fields overlooking Antietam Creek in western Maryland; nor did any single combat in that war go so far toward putting this American crisis on the road to solution.

Mrs. Anderson noted that things had not been going too well for the Union cause in the summer of 1862. The great drive to capture Richmond, in which the picturesque young General George B. McClellan led the Army of the Potomac down to the very suburbs of the Confederate capital, had failed in the smoke and clamor of the famous Seven Days Battle — seven days in which Robert E. Lee, outnumbered and seemingly doomed to defeat, had soundly whipped McClellan's army.

At the beginning of September, the cause of the Union looked very dark, the vital spark in the Northern war effort seemed to have died and there did not appear to be any good way to bring it back to life. Worst of all General Lee's triumphant Army of Northern Virginia was marching for an invasion of the Northern heartland, aiming apparently at the conquest of Pennsylvania and the capture of Washington.

Along with this there was the open threat of decisive European intervention on the side of the Confederacy. The British government was openly sympathetic with the South and France's Napoleon III was clearly ready to grant recognition and material aid if the British would just take the lead.

This the government at London seemed prepared to do. They were waiting to see what came of Lee's invasion of the North. If it went as it seemed likely to go, Britain would act.

Lincoln had tried desperately to remedy matters, but at the moment there was little he could do. It seemed to him that to revive the Northern war effort, something must bring into full action the vigor and determination of the abolitionists.

Thus far, official policy was that the war was being fought for the sole purpose of restoring the Union — that the issue of slavery had nothing to do with it. To Lincoln it now became clear that he must broaden the base; if this could now be made a war against slavery, as well as a war for reunion, it would become a thing in which no British government would dare to intervene.

To bring this about, Lincoln had on his desk a draft of what would eventually be the Emancipation Proclamation, but he could not issue it yet. If it were presented it would appear to be a cry of despair and an appeal to the black race for help. What the North needed first was a victory.

Lincoln did what he could. To the poorly reorganized Army of the Potomac, which was moving up into Maryland to try to catch and defeat Lee, he restored General McClellan. If Lee could be beaten then European intervention could be averted and final victory could perhaps be counted on.

Mrs. Anderson went on to say that on the evening of the 16th, the pickets of both armies were within talking distance of each other at Sharpsburg. A drizzling rain fell all night. The battle opened at dawn to a hot, clear day.

Today government markers and narrative tablets placed on this battlefield site tell of the fighting in the West Woods, the East Woods, the North Woods and on the Poffenberger Farm, of Miller's corn field swept by fighting Joe Hooker's Union batteries. They tell of the sunken road that became Bloody Lane, where bodies of Lee's men lay so thickly that "as far down the road as he could see, a man could have walked without once touching the ground" and of the fight around Dunkard church, and of the stone bridge, across which Burnside's troops stormed in a leaden hail from the enemy's ridge beyond it.

As a smoky dusk came down, the great battle of the Antietam came to an end, with a Union army which did not know it had won and with a Confederate army which had been pounded to the last inch of human endurance. The Battle was over and nothing in particular had been settled.

Because Lee's invasion of the North failed, England decided not to recognize the Confederacy. The possibility that Europe would settle the American Civil War went out the window.

Mrs. Anderson continued: Lincoln now had the victory which he had to have. The Emancipation Proclamation was issued and the course of American history thereafter was different.

The Emancipation in many ways was one of the weakest state papers ever issued in the United States. It decreed the end of slavery in those areas where the writ of the Federal government did not run, namely, in those states that, as yet unconquered, were still in rebellion; it left slavery untouched in the "loyal" slave states like Maryland and Kentucky.

In many ways it was nothing more than a pious statement of intent. Yet it had immense power. It finally determined that the Civil War was not merely a war for reunion but also a war to end human slavery. Everything in American history and, within reason, in world history — would be different after this.

The Antietam battle brought the country to and through a moment of enormous decision. Out of it came reunion and freedom, neither fully attained even a century later, but each one riveted into the American consciousness in a way time cannot undo.

Mrs. Anderson finished by saying, "What America is and hopes to be dates from the fight along Antietam Creek. The fight cost an enormous number of lives, and inflicted pain and disability on many thousands more; but in the infinite economy of the advance of the human race it may have been worth what it cost."

Cut It Out Now!

DEAR ABBY: The other day my husband said, "There is nothing wrong with taking a nice girl out for dinner!" This remark was made during an argument we had over his taking his secretary out because he wanted to do "something nice" for her. She receives a good salary and a Christmas bonus check, which I think is enough, don't you? He has also bought her (and her child) birthday gifts. DEAR ABBY: What do you do when a fellow asks you to dance and, instead of concentrating on his dancing, he carries on a running conversation with you? This happens to me a lot with fellows who ask me to dance just to get acquainted. I like to dance, but I can't dance very well while someone is talking to me.

LIKES TO DANCE
DEAR LIKES: It's a compliment to be asked to "dance" as a way to "get acquainted." If you step on his toes occasionally, he won't mind. Just put your best foot forward while you get to know one another better.

DEAR ABBY: Tonight my mother went to an 8:00 P.M. meeting, and my father was scheduled to bowl with his league at 8:30 P.M. At 8:15 P.M. some friends "dropped in" unexpectedly. My father just stood up at 8:25 P.M. and told them he was sorry but he had to go bowling. I know they were hurt. My father is a school teacher, and should know how to handle situations like these. Did he handle it right?

Mrs. Anderson Presents Talk On Antietam at Monday Club

The regular meeting of the Monday Club met in the Trustees Room of the Memorial Hall Monday evening, with Miss Mary K. May presiding.

Mrs. Harold Anderson, speaker for the meeting, presented a paper entitled "The Crisis at Antietam."

Mrs. Anderson began by saying, "a lazy stream in a lush countryside, an unpaved road cut deep by wagon wheels and washing rains, an arched stone bridge, a neat town in the distance — these unimpressive features of a quiet Maryland landscape made the setting in which one of the greatest moments of crisis in American history came to a solution on the bloody day of Sept. 17, 1862."

In all the American Civil War, no single day was bloodier or more costly than the one on the hills and fields overlooking Antietam Creek in western Maryland; nor did any single combat in that war go so far toward putting this American crisis on the road to solution.

Mrs. Anderson noted that things had not been going too well for the Union cause in the summer of 1862. The great drive to capture Richmond, in which the picturesquely young General George B. McClellan led the Army of the Potomac down to the very suburbs of the Confederate capital, had failed in the smoke and clamor of the famous Seven Days Battle — seven days in which Robert E. Lee, outnumbered and seemingly doomed to defeat, had soundly whipped McClellan's army.

At the beginning of September, the cause of the Union looked very dark, the vital spark in the Northern war effort seemed to have died and there did not appear to be any good way to bring it back to life. Worst of all General Lee's triumphant Army of Northern Virginia was marching for an invasion of the Northern heartland, aiming apparently at the conquest of Pennsylvania and the capture of Washington.

Along with this there was the open threat of decisive European intervention on the side of the Confederacy. The British government was openly sympathetic with the South and France's Napoleon III was clearly ready to grant recognition and material aid if the British would just take the lead.

This the government at London seemed prepared to do. They were waiting to see what came of Lee's invasion of the North. If it went as it seemed likely to go, Britain would act.

Lincoln had tried desperately to remedy matters, but at the moment there was little he could do. It seemed to him that to revive the Northern war effort, something must bring into full action the vigor and determination of the abolitionists.

Thus far, official policy was that the war was being fought for the sole purpose of restoring the Union — that the issue of slavery had nothing to do with it. To Lincoln it now became clear that he must broaden the base; if this could now be made a war against slavery, as well as a war for reunion, it would become a thing in which no British government would dare to intervene.

To bring this about, Lincoln had on his desk a draft of what would eventually be the Emancipation Proclamation, but he could not issue it yet. If it were presented it would appear to be a cry of despair and an appeal to the black race for help. What the North needed first was a victory.

Lincoln did what he could. To the poorly reorganized Army of the Potomac, which was moving up into Maryland to try to catch and defeat Lee, he restored General McClellan. If Lee could be beaten then European intervention could be averted and final victory could perhaps be counted on.

Mrs. Anderson went on to say that on the evening of the 16th, the pickets of both armies were within talking distance of each other at Sharpsburg. A drizzling rain fell all night. The battle opened at dawn to a hot, clear day.

Today government markers and narrative tablets placed on this battlefield site tell of the fighting in the West Woods, the East Woods, the North Woods and on the Poffenberger Farm, of Miller's corn field swept by fighting Joe Hooker's Union batteries. They tell of the sunken road that became Bloody Lane, where bodies of Lee's men lay so thickly that "as far down the road as he could see, a man could have walked without once touching the ground" and of the fight around Dunkard church, and of the stone bridge, across which Burnside's troops stormed in a leaden hail from the enemy's ridge beyond it.

As a smoky dusk came down, the great battle of the Antietam came to an end, with a Union army which did not know it had won and with a Confederate army which had been pounded to the last inch of human endurance. The battle was over and nothing in particular had been settled.

Because Lee's invasion of the North failed, England decided not to recognize the Confederacy. The possibility that Europe would settle the American Civil War went out the window.

Mrs. Anderson continued: Lincoln now had the victory which he had to have. The Emancipation Proclamation was issued and the course of American history thereafter was different.

The Emancipation in many ways was one of the weakest state papers ever issued in the United States. It decreed the end of slavery in those areas where the writ of the Federal government did not run, namely, in those states that, as yet unconquered, were still in rebellion; it left slavery untouched in the "loyal" slave states like Maryland and Kentucky.

In many ways it was nothing more than a pious statement of intent. Yet it had immense power. It finally determined that the Civil War was not merely a war for reunion but also a war to end human slavery. Everything in American history and, within reason, in world history — would be different after this.

The Antietam battle brought the country to and through a moment of enormous decision. Out of it came reunion and freedom, neither fully attained even a century later, but each one riveted into the American consciousness in a way time cannot undo.

Mrs. Anderson finished by saying, "What America is and hopes to be dates from the fight along Antietam Creek. The fight cost an enormous number of lives, and inflicted pain and disability on many thousands more; but in the infinite economy of the advance of the human race it may have been worth what it cost."

Massillon '11' Rated as Top Team in Ohio

Niles Ranked Second With Sandusky Third In AP Football Poll

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Massillon's mighty Tigers, winners of the 1960 Ohio high school football championship, were right back on top today as 36 sports writers rated the teams in the opening Associated Press poll of the infant campaign.

Niles McKinley, runner-up last year, was in second place—a lot closer than the Red Dragons were at the 1960 finish when they were 131 poll points behind Leo Strang's Tigers. Today the margin was a mere 25 points, and Niles grabbed seven first-place votes while Massillon was getting six.

Alliance, third a year ago, skidded to fourth place, trading spots with Sandusky. Cincinnati Purcell, sixth last season, was down in 10th place—but the other five in the top ten were newcomers.

From fifth through ninth the new ones are Toledo St. Francis, Mansfield's resurgent Tigers, Steubenville's Big Red, Toledo Scott and Warren Harding — the latter the only loser in the lot.

Hamilton Garfield, pre-season pick to land among the elite, failed to get beyond 11th place in the voting. A squeaky 7-6 win over Cincinnati Woodward last weekend failed to help Lou Florio's team to any great extent.

Springfield South, always a contender, was belted 14-6 by Columbus North and the Wildcats wound up with a single tenth-place vote. Portsmouth, after two impressive wins, was stunned 27-14 by Columbus Aquinas to push the Trojans out of the running.

Shown are the first place votes in parentheses, the poll points on a 10-9-8-etc. basis, and the scoring records of the leaders:

The Top Ten

Warren Harding (0)	47	36-42

Piersall Put On Trading Block Again

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Jim Piersall reportedly is the Cleveland Indians' prime trade bait as they look forward to next season.

But the fiery centerfielder is extremely popular with the fans, and his departure from the wigwam probably would touch off the greatest public reaction in Cleveland since Rocky Colavito was sent to Detroit in exchange for Harvey Kuenn at the start of the 1960 season.

Tribe General Manager Gabe Paul offered Piersall and Walter Bond to the Kansas City Athletics for Norm Siebern, but the A's turned down the offer.

Fans argue that Piersall is the only colorful player the Indians have, but Paul says color doesn't draw people to the ball park. Piersall was in center field this season when the Indians drew only 725,547 fans, compared with 950,985 last year.

One reason Piersall is on the trading block is that his market value is high because he is batting .500 points over his lifetime average. It may never be as high again.

The Indians are here for a three-game series with the Minnesota Twins opening today. Gary Bell (1-15) will start for the Tribe in the opener and will be opposed by Jack Kralick (13-10).

Iowa Is Voted No. 1 Team

Mississippi Second, OSU Third in Poll

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Iowa, which doesn't open season until Saturday, was voted the top college football team in the country today in the first regular-season Associated Press weekly poll.

The special national panel of 49 sports writers and sportscasters gave the Hawkeyes, who tangle with California in their opener, 343 points to 332 for second-place Mississippi and 309 for third-place Ohio State, another outfit that doesn't get rolling until Saturday.

The points were based in the formula of 10 for first place, 9 for second and so on.

Iowa, which also led the pre-season poll, received 19 first place votes to 12 for Mississippi and 7 for Ohio State. The Buckeyes, second to Iowa in the pre-season poll, play Texas Christian in their first game Saturday.

Mississippi's smoothly contrived 16-0 victory over Arkansas in a nationally televised game last week obviously impressed the panel. Ole Miss was placed no better than ninth in the pre-season poll with a mere two first-place votes.

The top 10 teams — first place votes in parentheses:

Iowa (19)	343
Mississippi (12)	332
Ohio State (7)	309
Alabama (6)	307

Michigan State	80

Other teams receiving votes: Missouri, Baylor, Georgia Tech, Texas Christian, Purdue, Kansas, Florida, Maryland, Louisiana State, Duke, Minnesota, Oregon, Pitt, Kansas State, Auburn, Notre Dame Army, Wyoming, Wisconsin, North Carolina State, Colorado, Mississippi State, Tennessee, Utah State, Furman, California.

Lopez Retained As Chisox Pilot

CHICAGO (AP)—Al Lopez, the only manager to crack New York Yankee pennant superiority since 1948, will pilot the Chicago White Sox for the sixth consecutive season in 1962.

Lopez, 63, signed a one-year contract Monday after suffering the worst finish of his managerial career. The Sox will wind up fourth this year.

Last year they finished third. Previous to last season, no team managed by Lopez, a former National League catcher, had finished lower than second.

Arnold Palmer, a two-time Insurance City Open winner, finished this year's tournament at Hartford, Conn., with a pair of 73s to tie for 30th position. He began with 68-67.

Broncos To Use 'Wide Open' Play against Madison South

If Ashville High School grid coach Russ Gregg's practice plans jell as scheduled, Friday night's Bronco-Madison South tilt will be literally a "wide open game."

The long suit in Gregg's strategy stockpile this week is a theory that two offenses are better than one. And the mentor's youthful charges will probably be using a multiple attack when they tackle their powerful Madison County hosts.

Thus far the master plan calls for the movement of both ends to positions wide of the line of play. By splitting his end men Gregg hopes to loosen up the South defense enough to permit freshmen quarterback David Roese an opportunity for more passing than was feasible in last week's 6-6 deadlock of Darby Valley League opponent Triad.

In the event an aerial assault fails, Ashville can still rely on the spread pattern to give the Bronco inside attack unit more room to crack through South's line.

Pro Football Puts Stress On Defense

CLEVELAND (AP)—One thing is clearly evident in the National Football League game so far: defense has been the big factor. Five in the games last weekend were decided by four points or less, with 20 points as the top margin.

Could this be an indication of things to come in the league this year? Cleveland Browns Coach Paul Brown thinks so.

"There is no question about it," says Brown. "The defense is becoming more and more important. There is an emphasis on it all over the league."

"Players are drafted with the idea of using them on defense and more and more time is being spent at it."

Turning to his own defensive unit, Brown said Larry Stephens will become prominent in the planning. The second year tackle from Texas did a good job when he relieved Floyd Peters in the second half against St. Louis Sunday, according to the coach.

Bobby Mitchell, kayoed in the second quarter in the Browns' 20-17 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals Sunday, is feeling better. It's believed he'll be ready for the first practice of the week Wednesday.

The Browns tangle with Dallas this Sunday at Municipal Stadium.

Adkins Entry Wins Feature at Beulah

Banteel, a 4-year-old chestnut gelding owned by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Adkins of 610 S. Court St., won the featured $1,300 allowance race for 3-year-olds and up at Beulah Park in Grove City yesterday.

Jockey Harry Holcombe took Banteel six furlongs over a heavy track in 1:14 4-5 to pay $6.80. Edgar G., worn down in the stretch by Banteel after moving up from fourth, returned $4.60 for place. Sad paid show money of $3.20.

Maris Awaits 5 Games in Yank Stadium

NEW YORK (AP) — Roger Maris, still looking for "a pitcher to make a mistake," resumes his search for his 60th home run tonight as the New York Yankees return to Yankee Stadium for their last five games of the regular season.

Baltimore, with a pitching staff that has allowed only two homers to the 27-year-old slugger, furnishes the opposition tonight and Wednesday afternoon, and the Boston Red Sox for the final three games — Friday night, and Saturday and Sunday afternoons.

Maris, who'll have to settle for a 162-game record in his challenge to Babe Ruth's all-time total of 60 in 1927 if he manages to hit any more, isn't at all confident.

"They (the pitchers) aren't giving me anything to hit," he said. "I'd have a better chance at the Stadium if they pitched to me. But, you watch, they'll pitch me outside. The only way I'll get another one is if a pitcher makes a mistake."

The law of averages would indicate that Maris should hit at least one home run, possibly two, in the last five games. In 76 games at the Stadium, he has hit 28—an average of a home run every 2.7 games.

Giant TCU Passer Gets Attention from Hayes

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Guy (Sonny) Gibbs, the 230-pound, 6-foot-7 giant who plays quarterback for Texas Christian, will pose a defensive problem for Ohio State when the two teams collide next Saturday, Buckeye Coach Woody Hayes concedes.

"When he straightens up to throw, he looks as if he's passing from a second story window," Hayes told his first press luncheon of the season Monday.

Xenia Mare Captures Laurels at Lebanon

LEBANON, Ohio (AP) — Penny Hill, fleet Xenia - based mare, moved up fast in the stretch and got past Sports Haven at the wire to win the featured pace at Lebanon Raceway Monday night. She ticked off the mile in 2:07 4-5, her best time this year, and paid $7.20. Sports Haven was worth $5.20, and Dr. W. paid $4 for show.

CINCINNATI (AP) — Despite rain and winds, Len Wagner of Cincinnati covered Covernook Country Club in par Monday, 70-72-142, to win the Southern Ohio Professional Golfers Association Championship.

A three-way tie one stroke off the pace knotted second place among Jim Baker and Jim Rudolph of Dayton and Bill Collins of Columbus.

Bunny Berning of Cincinnati took the seniors' division title with a 70.

Former Tiger Sees Extended Action in Bowling Green Win

Asa Elsea, former Circleville High School star football player, saw extensive action in Bowling Green State University's 40-0 mauling of Marshall College Saturday.

Elsea played half of the contest at center. It marked his first game appearance at a regular position after spending the 1960 BG grid season as a kicking specialist.

In Saturday's tilt he booted two after-TD markers, missed one and missed one field goal try. Last year the former CHS guard was credited with 11 points after, but was not used in any other plays.

Massillon '11'
Rated as Top
Team in Ohio

Niles Ranked Second
With Sandusky Third
In AP Football Poll

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Massillon's mighty Tigers, winners of the 1960 Ohio high school football championship, were right back on top today as 36 sports writers rated the teams in the opening Associated Press poll of the infant campaign.

Niles McKinley, runner-up last year, was in second place—a lot closer than the Red Dragons were at the 1960 finish when they were 131 poll points behind Leo Strang's Tigers. Today the margin was a mere 25 points, and Niles grabbed seven first-place votes while Massillon was getting six.

Alliance, third a year ago, skidded to fourth place, trading spots with Sandusky. Cincinnati Purcell, sixth last season, was down in 10th place—but the other five in the top ten were newcomers.

From fifth through ninth the new ones are Toledo St. Francis, Mansfield's resurgent Tigers, Steubenville's Big Red, Toledo Scott and Warren Harding — the latter the only loser in the lot.

Hamilton Garfield, pre-season pick to land among the elite, failed to get beyond 11th place in the voting. A squeaky 7-6 win over Cincinnati Woodward last weekend failed to help Lou Florio's team to any great extent.

Springfield South, always a contender, was belted 14-6 by Columbus North and the Wildcats wound up with a single tenth-place vote. Portsmouth, after two impressive wins, was stunned 27-14 by Columbus Aquinas to push the Trojans out of the running.

Shown are the first place votes in parentheses, the poll points on a 10-9-8-etc. basis, and the scoring records of the leaders:

Piersall Put
On Trading
Block Again

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Jim Piersall reportedly is the Cleveland Indians' prime trade bait as they look forward to next season.

But the fiery centerfielder is extremely popular with the fans, and his departure from the wigwag probably would touch off the greatest public reaction in Cleveland since Rocky Colavito was sent to Detroit in exchange for Harvey Kuenn at the start of the 1960 season.

Tribe General Manager Gabe Paul offered Piersall and Walter Bond to the Kansas City Athletics for Norm Siebern, but the A's turned down the offer.

Fans argue that Piersall is the only colorful player the Indians have, but Paul says color doesn't draw people to the ball park. Piersall was in center field this season when the Indians drew only 725,547 fans, compared with 950,985 last year.

One reason Piersall is on the trading block is that his market value is high because he is batting .500 points over his lifetime average. It may never be as high again.

The Indians are here for a three-game series with the Minnesota Twins opening today. Gary Bell (1-15) will start for the Tribe in the opener and will be opposed by Jack Kralick (13-10).

When the Kansas City Athletics signed pitcher Lew Krausse Jr. to a bonus they also renewed his father's contract as a scout through 1965.

Iowa Is Voted
No. 1 Team

Mississippi Second,
OSU Third in Poll

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Iowa, which doesn't open season until Saturday, was voted the top college football team in the country today in the first regular-season Associated Press weekly poll.

The special national panel of 49 sports writers and sportscasters gave the Hawkeyes, who tangle with California in their opener, 343 points to 332 for second-place Mississippi and 309 for third-place Ohio State, another outfit that doesn't get rolling until Saturday.

The points were based in the formula of 10 for first place, 9 for second and so on.

Iowa, which also led the pre-season poll, received 19 first place votes to 12 for Mississippi and 7 for Ohio State. The Buckeyes, second to Iowa in the pre-season poll, play Texas Christian in their first game Saturday.

Mississippi's smoothly contrived 16-0 victory over Arkansas in a nationally televised game last week obviously impressed the panel. Ole Miss was placed no better than ninth in the pre-season poll with a mere two first-place votes.

The top 10 teams — first place votes in parentheses:

Table with 2 columns: Team, Votes. Rows include Iowa (19) 343, Mississippi (12) 332, Ohio State (7) 309, Alabama (6) 307, Syracuse 233, Texas (1) 227, Rice (2) 220, Penn State (2) 192, UCLA 98, Michigan State 80. Other teams receiving votes: Missouri, Baylor, Georgia Tech, Texas Christian, Purdue, Kansas, Florida, Maryland, Louisiana State, Duke, Minnesota, Oregon, Pitt, Kansas State, Auburn, Notre Dame, Army, Wyoming, Wisconsin, North Carolina State, Colorado, Mississippi State, Tennessee, Utah State, Furman, California.

Lopez Retained
As Chisox Pilot

CHICAGO (AP)—Al Lopez, the only manager to crack New York Yankee pennant superiority since 1948, will pilot the Chicago White Sox for the sixth consecutive season in 1962.

Lopez, 53, signed a one-year contract Monday after suffering the worst finish of his managerial career. The Sox will wind up fourth this year.

Last year they finished third. Previous to last season, no team managed by Lopez, a former National League catcher, had finished lower than second.

Arnold Palmer, a two-time Insurance City Open winner, finished this year's tournament at Hartford, Conn., with a pair of 73s to tie for 30th position. He began with 68-67.

Broncos To Use 'Wide Open'
Play against Madison South

If Ashville High School grid coach Russ Gregg's practice plans jell as scheduled, Friday night's Bronco-Madison South tilt will be literally a "wide open game."

The long suit in Gregg's strategy stockpile this week is a theory that two offenses are better than one. And the mentor's youthful charges will probably be using a multiple attack when they tackle their powerful Madison County hosts.

Thus far the master plan calls for the movement of both ends to positions wide of the line of play. By splitting his end men Gregg hopes to loosen up the South defense enough to permit freshmen quarterback David Roese an opportunity for more passing than was feasible in last week's 6-6 deadlock of Darby Valley League opponent Triad.

In the event an aerial assault fails, Ashville can still rely on the spread pattern to give the Bronco inside attack unit more room to crack through South's line.

"IF WE can retain the same quality of ball playing we showed against Triad we'll be in good shape," Gregg said. His team has shown an outstanding attitude in early drills this week, he added. There have been no damaging injuries thus far.

Facing the AHS gridders Friday will be a veteran outfit led by third year regular quarterback Eddie Ropp, a demon on passing. Fullback Rick Renick is another Madison South powerhouse who returned from last year's undefeated (10-0) campaign.

Included in South's unblemished record was a 22-8 pounding of the Broncos in a local Fairgrounds contest. Several of the starting eleven were lost through graduation but Gregg labeled the MS team "still an extremely dangerous ball club."

Madison South took the measure of Southeastern in the season opener, 12-0, but saw their victory string snapped by larger and tougher Fairborn 56-0.

The Madison Countians came back last week to humble Greenville 26-0 for a 2-1 record thus far. Gregg's wide open effort is designed to counterbalance quarterback Ropp, who unleashed a 24-aerial bombardment in the Greenville match.

Ashville now holds an 0-2-1 slate. The Broncos lost to Amanda 28-0 and Mt. Vernon St. Vincent 28-6 before tying Triad.

Maris Awaits
5 Games in
Yank Stadium

NEW YORK (AP) — Roger Maris, still looking for "a pitcher to make a mistake," resumes his search for his 60th home run tonight as the New York Yankees return to Yankee Stadium for their last five games of the regular season.

Baltimore, with a pitching staff that has allowed only two homers to the 27-year-old slugger, furnishes the opposition tonight and Wednesday afternoon, and the Boston Red Sox for the final three games — Friday night, and Saturday and Sunday afternoons.

Maris, who'll have to settle for a 162-game record in his challenge to Babe Ruth's all-time total of 60 in 1927 if he manages to hit any more, isn't at all confident.

"They (the pitchers) aren't giving me anything to hit," he said. "I'd have a better chance at the Stadium if they pitched to me. But, you watch, they'll pitch me outside. The only way I'll get another one is if a pitcher makes a mistake."

The law of averages would indicate that Maris should hit at least one home run, possibly two, in the last five games. In 76 games at the Stadium, he has hit 28—an average of a home run every 2.7 games.

Harness Racing Stars Get Invites to Hollywood Park

LOS ANGELES — Stars of the harness racing world, including Hugh Grant's pacer O'Brien Hanover and Castleton Farms' three-year-old trotter Spectator, have been issued invitations to compete here in the $75,000 American Pacing Classic and the $75,000 American Trotting Classic respectively.

The twin Classics highlight the 35-day autumn season, which gets underway at nearby Hollywood Park Oct. 3.

O'Brien Hanover, named for driver Joe O'Brien but usually driven by Delvin Miller, recently chalked up a spectacular victory string of three straight against top competition in New York, including a world record for a mile and a quarter of 2:31.1. He also clocked the third fastest time ever recorded for a mile and a half, a 3:05.3 victory at Yonkers Raceway, and also broke the 2:00 barrier for a flat mile, registering a 1:59.2 triumph three weeks ago.

Other pacers invited to the Classic include the Australian mare Arania, the speedy Right Time and the fast four-year-old Merrie Adios.

Spectator, recent conqueror of Hambletonian horse Harlan Dean in the $51,927 Horseman Futurity at Indianapolis in 1:59.4 heads the quartet of trotters receiving invitations to the Trotting Classic.

Also included in the group is Hickory Pride, whose recent 1:59.2 clocking for a mile ranks as the third fastest in the nation this year. Rounding out the latest invitees are Darn Safe, the gallant Hayes Fair Acres performer who has been in every edition of the Trotting Classic since its inception in 1955, and the classy New York performer Rodare.

Following are lists of invitees and drivers to the twin classics:

Reds Could Do It In Game Tonight

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A wait of more than two decades may have dwindled into the final few hours for the Cincinnati Reds. Tonight could bring them their first National League pennant since 1940.

With the magic number at two, the race is at the wire. The Reds play the Cubs at Chicago this afternoon and the Los Angeles Dodgers are slated for a two-night doubleheader at Pittsburgh with last year's surprise flag winners, the Pirates.

Any combination of two—a Cincinnati win plus a Dodger defeat, or a pair of Dodger losses—would give the NL another bust-to-boom champion, and would send the Reds into the World Series against New York's home run-blasting Yankees.

Cincinnati was idle Monday night. The Dodgers and Pirates were rained out, setting up their two-nighter. In other NL games, the San Francisco Giants bombed the Philadelphia Phillies 10-2 with an 18-hit offensive and the Milwaukee Braves cut down the potential tying run at the plate in the ninth inning and edged the St. Louis Cardinals 2-1.

In the only American League action, Bob Shaw pitched eight no-hit innings but was rapped in the ninth as Kansas City gained a split with Detroit, 6-3. The Tigers clinched second place by winning their sixth in a row in the double-header opener, 6-4.

The Giants' free-swinging assault against the Phils was spearheaded by Orlando Cepeda and rookie catcher John Orsino.

Cepeda, on a torrid batting streak, had four hits and drove in four runs, boosting his league-leading RBI total to 140. Orsino homered twice and singled, while Willie Mays and Felipe Alou also contributed three hits each. Left-hander Mike McCormick (13-16) was tagged for 10 hits but won in a breeze, Don Farrars (5-11), batted out early, was the loser.

The Braves saved their narrow decision over the Cards by cutting down Ken Boyer when he tried to score on an almost-wild pitch by Don McMahon. Ray Washburn (0-1), in his first big league start, gave up a first-inning homer to Hank Aaron and balked across the deciding run in the fourth. Milwaukee starter Carl Willey (6-12) collaborated on a five-hitter with McMahon.

Shaw (12-13) reached the ninth inning before his try for a no-hitter blew up. Dick McAuliffe led off the Tiger ninth and was safe on Dick Howser's wild throw, then Bubba Morton clipped the Kansas City right-hander for a solid single. An infield out, a sacrifice fly, Larry Osborne's homer and a single by Jack Wood followed before Frank Rouse popped up for the last out.

A five-run burst in the eighth brought Detroit from behind in the opening game. Wood, pinch batter Al Kaline and Vic Wertz. Bill Bruton and Morton knocked in the runs in the Tiger rally.

Harness Racing Stars Get invites to Hollywood Park

LOS ANGELES — Stars of the harness racing world, including Hugh Grant's pacer O'Brien Hanover and Castleton Farms' three-year-old trotter Spectator, have been issued invitations to compete here in the $75,000 American Pacing Classic and the $75,000 American Trotting Classic respectively.

The twin Classics highlight the 35-day autumn season, which gets underway at nearby Hollywood Park Oct. 3.

O'Brien Hanover, named for driver Joe O'Brien but usually driven by Delvin Miller, recently chalked up a spectacular victory string of three straight against top competition in New York, including a world record for a mile and a quarter of 2:31.1. He also clocked the third fastest time ever recorded for a mile and a half, a 3:05.3 victory at Yonkers Raceway, and also broke the 2:00 barrier for a flat mile, registering a 1:59.2 triumph three weeks ago.

Other pacers invited to the Classic include the Australian mare Arania, the speedy Right Time and the fast four-year-old Merrie Adios.

Spectator, recent conqueror of Hambletonian hero Harlan Dean in the $51,927 Horseman Futurity at Inianapolis in 1:59.4 heads the quartet of trotters receiving invitations to the Trotting Classic. Also included in the group is Hickory Pride, whose recent 1:59.2 clocking for a mile ranks as the third fastest in the nation this year. Rounding out the latest invitees are Darn Safe, the gallant Hayes Fair Acres performer who has been in every edition of the Trotting Classic since its inception in 1955, and the classy New York performer Rodare.

Reds Could Do It In Game Tonight

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A wait of more than two decades may have dwindled into the final few hours for the Cincinnati Reds. Tonight could bring them their first National League pennant since 1940.

With the magic number at two, the race is at the wire. The Reds play the Cubs at Chicago this afternoon and the Los Angeles Dodgers are slated for a two-night doubleheader at Pittsburgh with last year's surprise flag winners, the Pirates.

Any combination of two—a Cincinnati win plus a Dodger defeat, or a pair of Dodger losses—would give the NL another bust-to-boom champion, and would send the Reds into the World Series against New York's home-run-blasting Yankees.

Cincinnati was idle Monday night. The Dodgers and Pirates were rained out, setting up their two-nighter. In other NL games, the San Francisco Giants bombed the Philadelphia Phillies 10-2 with an 18-hit offensive and the Milwaukee Braves cut down the potential tying run at the plate in the ninth inning and edged the St. Louis Cardinals 2-1.

In the only American League action, Bob Shaw pitched eight no-hit innings but was rapped in the ninth as Kansas City gained a split with Detroit, 6-3. The Tigers clinched second place by winning their sixth in a row in the doubleheader opener, 6-4.

The Giants' free-swinging assault against the Phils was spearheaded by Orlando Cepeda and rookie catcher John Orsino. Cepeda, on a torrid batting streak, had four hits and drove in four runs, boosting his league-leading RBI total to 140. Orsino homered twice and singled, while Willie Mays and Felipe Alou also contributed three hits each. Left-hander Mike McCormick (13-16) was tagged for 10 hits but won in a breeze, Don Farrarrese (5-11), batted out early, was the loser.

The Braves saved their narrow decision over the Cards by cutting down Ken Boyer when he tried to score on an almost-wild pitch by Don McMahon. Ray Washburn (0-1), in his first big league start, gave up a first-inning homer to Hank Aaron and balked across the deciding run in the fourth. Milwaukee starter Carl Willey (6-12) collaborated on a five-hitter with McMahon.

Shaw (12-13) reached the ninth inning before his try for a no-hitter blew up. Dick McAuliffe led off the Tiger ninth and was safe on Dick Howser's wild throw, then Bubba Morton clipped the Kansas City right-hander for a solid single. An infield out, a sacrifice fly, Larry Osborne's homer and a single by Jake Wood followed before Frank House popped up for the last out.

A five-run burst in the eighth brought Detroit from behind in the opening game. Wood, pinch batters Al Kaline and Vic Wertz, Bill Bruton and Morton knocked in the runs in the Tiger rally.

'Schoolmaster' Mike DiSalle Heads Seminar on Finances

OXFORD, Ohio (AP) — Seventeen newsmen today wind up a short course in state government and its financing.

"Schoolmaster" Michael V. DiSalle and his cabinet assistants are discovering they picked a tough job in attempting to educate the newsmen in the mysteries of government finance in a couple of two-day seminars.

The first seminar was scheduled to wind up this afternoon on the Miami University campus in Oxford. The second opens Wednesday night at Bowling Green State University.

Newsmen who have covered Di-

Salle's five-a-week news conferences during his 2½ years as governor found nothing really new in the session which opened Sunday night. But it appeared to be an impressive education for newsmen who do not customarily cover the governor and his one-a-week cabinet meetings each Friday.

With relatively few strictly political overtones showing DiSalle cabinet members attempted a quick sales presentation of their views on the need for more money for key state programs.

How well the selling pitch got over to the newsmen may well show up in the legislative session starting Nov. 14, which will consider DiSalle's unprecedented veto of the entire second-year appropriation for the fiscal biennium that started July 1.

DiSalle asserted when he handed down the veto that the appropriations by the Republican-controlled legislature were inadequate, particularly in the fields of welfare and mental health.

One feature of the seminar was the distribution of a 3½-pound book reproducing all the charts, graphs and sentiments presented in the talks by departmental directors.

In addition to the talks by cabinet members, Dr. John D. Millett, president of Miami University, presented the case for additional appropriations for the six state-supported institutions of higher learning.

He asserted that the state colleges are educating 46.5 per cent of Ohio's 115,000 college students. Only 25 per cent of Ohioans of college age are now receiving higher education, he said.

Millett predicted that that figure will jump to about 30 per cent in the next few years, and commented, "I don't know how we're going to handle 46.5 per cent of that number."

Millett told the newsmen state-supported universities expect an enrollment increase of 5,000 next year with no prospect of additional state appropriations to handle the increase.

"It is absolutely impossible for us to maintain our educational programs under that type of financing," he declared.

Election Cases To Get Eye of High Court

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Two election cases are among 26 on the docket this week as the Ohio Supreme Court returns to work after its summer recess.

One of these is the appeal of W. A. James from a Trumbull County decision holding that he lost by 11 votes to Joseph J. Baldine in a race for county commissioner last November.

The other election case involves an appeal by liquor permit holders of Manchester in Adams County. They claim there were irregularities in the voting last November which resulted in Manchester going dry.

The Supreme Court will be at full strength today for the first time since last March 21 when Judge Thomas J. Herbert suffered a slight stroke. Herbert has recovered and has been working recently in his office at the Statehouse annex.

Other judges are Charles B. Zimmerman, Kingsley A. Taft, John M. Matthias, James F. Bell, and C. William O'Neill. Herbert and O'Neill are former governors.

Hearings on this week's 26 cases will determine whether they will be admitted for review. Similar hearings will continue through Oct. 6. Oral arguments on cases already admitted for review begin Oct. 10.

Pravda Prints Kennedy Data

Soviets Use Article By American Editor

MOSCOW (AP)—Pravda today printed a two-column article about President Kennedy—at the invitation of the New York Post.

The article was written by the Post's editor, James Wechsler, who pointed out that almost everything about Premier Khrushchev is printed in U.S. newspapers but little about Kennedy appears in Soviet newspapers.

In his article Wechsler invited the Communist party newspaper Pravda and the government newspaper Izvestia to print the article which he called a brief analysis of the position of the President. Pravda reported it was printing it in full.

Wechsler wrote that Kennedy has no illusions about victory in a nuclear war, but if the worst happened he would not allow the United States to accept defeat.

Nevertheless, he said the President was determined to try to work out solutions of existing problems even knowing that any solution will shower blame on him as a conciliator. He said the President thought anything could be negotiated except the dignity of a free people.

Wechsler said the President was too ready to accept the published word as the voice of the people. Further, he added, the President acted too quickly in response to pressure from inside the country.

That, he said, explained Kennedy's decision to renew nuclear tests soon after the Russians resumed them.

He added that he had no doubts of the sincerity or force of Kennedy's striving for a reasonable settlement in a world which has been balancing on the brink for so long.

That ended the portion from the Post article. This is the first such appraisal of the President in recent memory printed in the Soviet Union. Most articles are critical, not analytical.

Lisbon Arraignment Delayed in Anti-Gambling Prosecution

LISBON, Ohio (AP)—Four men indicted under Ohio's new anti-gambling law failed to appear for arraignment Monday. The scheduled arraignment wound up in a dispute between defense attorneys and state officials over who would prosecute the case.

Lisbon attorney William B. Moore appeared for the four Pittsburgh men and told Common Pleas Judge Joel H. Sharp he wanted time to file a motion demanding that the state file a bill of particulars specifying the charges against his clients. Moore said he represents the Lisbon Salesbook Co. and Martin Sufrin, president of Lisbon Salesbook; Isadore Sufrin, vice president; Joseph Sufrin, secretary-treasurer and Michael Schmidmeier, general manager.

The Columbiana County grand jury last week indicted the four officers and the company for printing materials used in numbers wagers. The indictments resulted from a raid against the firm Sept. 6, which was led by State Atty. Gen. Mark McElroy.

Judge Sharp gave Moore until Wednesday to fill his motion.

McElroy appeared in court along with John Gleason, an assistant attorney general, and Jack Nybell of Youngstown, also a member of the attorney general's staff.

Nybell told the court he would prosecute the case, and Moore

took exception, declaring that only the court can authorize any person other than the prosecutor to prosecute unless "it's for the public good or the public good requires it."

"I believe that's correct," Judge Sharp remarked.

The judge remarked that G. William Brokaw, county prosecutor, had advised him that the attorney general's staff was appearing before the grand jury about a week ago. He said he thought that was proper, but that appointment of the special prosecutor—if such an appointment is made—will come from the court.

Gleason said he favored bringing extradition proceedings immediately to require the defendants to appear. Moore replied that such action was unnecessary.

"These men will appear at any time designated by the court," he said.

The new state law, one of a number of anti-gambling laws which have gone into effect recently, makes it a felony to print numbers materials.

When he raided Lisbon Salesbook, McElroy called the firm the third largest numbers slip suppliers in the nation. He said the plant shipped materials to a dozen eastern states.

The company officials say they conducted a legitimate business, printing sales slip for groceries and other stores.

Jeff Chandler Death Brings Damage Suit

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP)—Actor Jeff Chandler's death last June has resulted in a $1.5-million damage suit against six doctors and a hospital.

The suit, filed Monday, alleged negligence, malpractice, wrongful death and assault and battery. It was filed on behalf of Chandler's children and his estate.

Named as defendants were Drs. Marvin A. Korbin, Peter B. Samuels, Sam Galinson, Kenneth J. Fichland, Alan M. Rosenberg and Milton Rosenthal; and Culver City Hospital. Also named in the suit were 20 John Does.

"The victim was caused to die," the action said, "by the combined negligence of the defendants, or one or more of them, and it is requested that the court determine the liability of each."

Chandler 42, underwent surgery at Culver City Hospital May 13 for a slipped spinal disc.

A few days later he suffered severe internal bleeding and was given 55 pints of blood. He rallied and seemed headed for recovery, but suffered a relapse and died June 17. Death was attributed to general blood infection.

There was no immediate comment from the doctors.

The hospital released a statement disclaiming any responsibility in the death.

The suit asked $1 million for daughters Jamie, 14, and Dana, 11 plus $500,000 for the estate. Chandler's divorced wife, Marjorie, asked nothing.

ADVANCED THRUST

Moves power forward for arrow-straight going

It puts the engine ahead like the tip of an arrow • It tames "wind wander" and road sway • It sweeps you forward in a hush of luxury • It turns the floor hump into foot space.

WHAT IT IS—Buick's big new move: It positions the great new Wildcat V-8 and Turbine Drive way up front over Buick's front wheels.

WHAT IT DOES—As the engine went forward, the floor hump went DOWN. And, the forward weight makes wheel response far quicker, cornering far surer, ride far smoother.

WHY YOU'LL LOVE IT—It's the closest you can come to sports car handling in a passenger car. Distances shrink before its ¾-G thrust. Hills disappear. Lean on curves is gone because the frame's gone wider. Winds don't make you wander. It's going at its Buick best!

'Schoolmaster' Mike DiSalle Heads Seminar on Finances

OXFORD, Ohio (AP) — Seventeen newsmen today wind up a short course in state government and its financing.

"Schoolmaster" Michael V. DiSalle and his cabinet assistants are discovering they picked a tough job in attempting to educate the newsmen in the mysteries of government finance in a couple of two-day seminars.

The first seminar was scheduled to wind up this afternoon on the Miami University campus in Oxford. The second opens Wednesday night at Bowling Green State University.

Newsmen who have covered Di-

Salle's five-a-week news conferences during his 2½ years as governor found nothing really new in the session which opened Sunday night. But it appeared to be an impressive education for newsmen who do not customarily cover the governor and his one-a-week cabinet meetings each Friday.

With relatively few strictly political overtones showing DiSalle cabinet members attempted a quick sales presentation of their views on the need for more money for key state programs.

How well the selling pitch got over to the newsmen may well show up in the legislative session starting Nov. 14, which will consider DiSalle's unprecedented veto of the entire second-year appropriation for the fiscal biennium that started July 1.

DiSalle asserted when he handed down the veto that the appropriations by the Republican-controlled legislature were inadequate, particularly in the fields of welfare and mental health.

One feature of the seminar was the distribution of a 3½-pound book reproducing all the charts, graphs and sentiments presented in the talks by departmental directors.

In addition to the talks by cabinet members, Dr. John D. Millett, president of Miami University, presented the case for additional appropriations for the six state-supported institutions of higher learning.

He asserted that the state colleges are educating 46.5 per cent of Ohio's 115,000 college students. Only 25 per cent of Ohioans of college age are now receiving higher education, he said.

Millett predicted that that figure will jump to about 30 per cent in the next few years, and commented, "I don't know how we're going to handle 46.5 per cent of that number."

Millett told the newsmen state-supported universities expect an enrollment increase of 5,000 next year with no prospect of additional state appropriations to handle the increase.

"It is absolutely impossible for us to maintain our educational programs under that type of financing," he declared.

Election Cases To Get Eye of High Court

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Two election cases are among 26 on the docket this week as the Ohio Supreme Court returns to work after its summer recess.

One of these is the appeal of W. A. James from a Trumbull County decision holding that he lost by 11 votes to Joseph J. Baldine in a race for county commissioner last November.

The other election case involves an appeal by liquor permit holders of Manchester in Adams County. They claim there were irregularities in the voting last November which resulted in Manchester going dry.

The Supreme Court will be at full strength today for the first time since last March 21 when Judge Thomas J. Herbert suffered a slight stroke. Herbert has recovered and has been working recently in his office at the Statehouse annex.

Other judges are Charles B. Zimmerman, Kingsley A. Taft, John M. Matthias, James F. Bell, and C. William O'Neill. Herbert and O'Neill are former governors.

Hearings on this week's 26 cases will determine whether they will be admitted for review. Similar hearings will continue through Oct. 6. Oral arguments on cases already admitted for review begin Oct. 10.

Pravda Prints Kennedy Data

Soviets Use Article By American Editor

MOSCOW (AP)—Pravda today printed a two-column article about President Kennedy—at the invitation of the New York Post.

The article was written by the Post's editor, James Wechsler, who pointed out that almost everything about Premier Khrushchev is printed in U.S. newspapers but little about Kennedy appears in Soviet newspapers.

In his article Wechsler invited the Communist party newspaper Pravda and the government newspaper Izvestia to print the article which he called a brief analysis of the position of the President. Pravda reported it was printing it in full.

Wechsler wrote that Kennedy has no illusions about victory in a nuclear war, but if the worst happened he would not allow the United States to accept defeat.

Nevertheless, he said the President was determined to try to work out solutions of existing problems even knowing that any solution will shower blame on him as a conciliator. He said the President thought anything could be negotiated except the dignity of a free people.

Wechsler said the President was too ready to accept the published word as the voice of the people. Further, he added, the President acted too quickly in response to pressure from inside the country.

That, he said, explained Kennedy's decision to renew nuclear tests soon after the Russians resumed them.

He added that he had no doubts of the sincerity or force of Kennedy's striving for a reasonable settlement in a world which has been balancing on the brink for so long.

That ended the portion from the Post article. This is the first such appraisal of the President in recent memory printed in the Soviet Union. Most articles are critical, not analytical.

Lisbon Arraignment Delayed in Anti-Gambling Prosecution

LISBON, Ohio (AP)—Four men indicted under Ohio's new anti-gambling law failed to appear for arraignment Monday. The scheduled arraignment wound up in a dispute between defense attorneys and state officials over who would prosecute the case.

Lisbon attorney William B. Moore appeared for the four Pittsburgh men and told Common Pleas Judge Joel H. Sharp he wanted time to file a motion demanding that the state file a bill of particulars specifying the charges against his clients. Moore said he represents the Lisbon Salesbook Co. and Martin Sufrin, president of Lisbon Salesbook; Isadore Sufrin, vice president; Joseph Sufrin, secretary-treasurer and Michael Schmidmeier, general manager.

The Columbiana County grand jury last week indicted the four officers and the company for printing materials used in numbers wagering. The indictments resulted from a raid against the firm Sept. 6, which was led by State Atty. Gen. Mark McElroy.

Judge Sharp gave Moore until Wednesday to fill his motion.

McElroy appeared in court along with John Gleason, an assistant attorney general, and Jack Nybell of Youngstown, also a member of the attorney general's staff.

Nybell told the court he would prosecute the case, and Moore

took exception, declaring that only the court can authorize any person other than the prosecutor to prosecute unless "it's for the public good or the public good requires it."

"I believe that's correct," Judge Sharp remarked.

The judge remarked that G. William Brokaw, county prosecutor, had advised him that the attorney general's staff was appearing before the grand jury about a week ago. He said he thought that was proper, but that appointment of the special prosecutor—if such an appointment is made—will come from the court.

Gleason said he favored bringing extradition proceedings immediately to require the defendants to appear. Moore replied that such action was unnecessary.

"These men will appear at any time designated by the court," he said.

The new state law, one of a number of anti-gambling laws which have gone into effect recently, makes it a felony to print numbers materials.

When he raided Lisbon Salesbook, McElroy called the firm the third largest numbers slip suppliers in the nation. He said the plant shipped materials to a dozen eastern states.

The company officials say they conducted a legitimate business, printing sales slip for groceries and other stores.

Jeff Chandler Death Brings Damage Suit

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP)—Actor Jeff Chandler's death last June has resulted in a $1.5-million damage suit against six doctors and a hospital.

The suit, filed Monday, alleged negligence, malpractice, wrongful death and assault and battery. It was filed on behalf of Chandler's children and his estate.

Named as defendants were Drs. Marvin A. Korbin, Peter B. Samuels, Sam Galinson, Kenneth J. Richland, Alan M. Rosenberg and Milton Rosenthal; and Culver City Hospital. Also named in the suit were 20 John Does.

"The victim was caused to die," the action said, "by the combined negligence of the defendants, or one or more of them, and it is requested that the court determine the liability of each."

Chandler 42, underwent surgery at Culver City Hospital May 13 for a slipped spinal disc.

A few days later he suffered severe internal bleeding and was given 55 pints of blood. He rallied and seemed headed for recovery, but suffered a relapse and died June 17. Death was attributed to general blood infection.

There was no immediate comment from the doctors.

The hospital released a statement disclaiming any responsibility in the death.

The suit asked $1 million for daughters Jamie, 14, and Dana, 11 plus $500,000 for the estate. Chandler's divorced wife, Marjorie, asked nothing.

HIS STAR RISING—Loss of strength in the parliamentary elections by Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's Christian Democratic Union puts Economics Minister Ludwig Erhard, shown voting at Bad Godesberg, in the forefront as a possible successor in West Germany.
